Littlestown Board Votes Increase For Teachers; Adopt Tentative Budget

The Littlestown Joint School System Tuesday evening accepted a recommendation of the teacher committee to increase teachers' salaries for 1964-65 by more than $5,000 and adopted a tentative budget of $524,190 for the next school term. The budget is $40,000 higher than that of the current year.

The teacher salary schedule includes a $100 bonus for teachers who will do graduate study in the field next summer and will provide an additional $100 to teachers with five or more years of Pennsylvania teaching experience over the mandated increment. The starting salary for beginning teachers was set at $4,600. One director explained that he was voting against the proposal in an effort "to keep our taxes down as long as possible." The motion was approved by a 20-1 vote.

BUDGET ITEMS
The budget, proposed by the finance committee, includes $372,033 for instruction for next year and lists the following anticipated receipts for the districts: Germany Twp., $107,751.21; Littlestown, $160,432.30; Mt. Joy Twp., $46,294.70; Mt. Pleasant Twp., $53,357.30 and Union Twp., $118,424.58. Total receipts are listed at $524,190. The new budget does not include an allotment for educational television.

Paul E. King, supervising principal, recommended a delay in joining the ETV program "for at least a year" until "we decide if we want to use it." He said he prefers a closed-circuit television classroom program "so that we can schedule the programs to fit our program." He pointed out that the ETV plan of the South-Central Council does not permit flexibility and "we would have to take the program when it is given."

PUBLISH MENSUS
A lengthy discussion of the operation of the cafeteria resulted in instructions to the supervising principal to publish the next week's menu in The Gettysburg Times every Friday to aid mothers in planning home meals.

The cafeteria occupied considerable attention at the February board meeting and members were asked to visit the cafeteria during the month and report at Tuesday's meeting. At least nine of the members said they had eaten at the schools during the month and reported:

AMPLE SERVINGS
1. Meals are tasty, and servings were ample for the men who reported. One director said he learned from some of the boys in the cafeteria line that they feel the servings are not large enough, but they admitted that "they are big eaters."

2. A number of boys were observed "throwing food away."

3. One teacher was reported to be carrying her lunch and that 10 pupils also had carried their lunches on that particular day.

One director said that "not enough visitations are made to the schools by either parents or board members to know what is going on," and strongly recommended that "when we hear a rumor of how bad things are we should go directly to the school and see for ourselves."

BALANCED MEALS
King said that nearly "all up perclassmen now are eating in the cafeteria and most of the underclassmen are beginning to eat there regularly." He reminded the

AMISH REOPEN 'MUD COLLEGE' FOR CLASSES

Mud College, the little red schoolhouse in Mt. Joy Twp., on Rt. 140 south of Gettysburg is back in the business of dispensing the three R's today to some 12-14 Amish children. The school was opened for classes Tuesday.

The pupils are the children of several Amish families who have purchased farms in the Barlow-Two Taverns-Frogtown area within the past several weeks. Approximately 25 children will be enrolled in the school by early spring when additional families move into the area from Maryland's Eastern Shore.

Mud College, so-called because of the nature of the soil in wet weather, was closed by the Mt. Joy School District in 1950, two years after the township joined the Littlestown Joint System. It was purchased a few years later by the 10 Crouse Brothers and their sister, who plan eventually to use it as a "Schoolhouse Museum."

Walter Crouse, representing the Crouse family, said that when Amos Stoltzfus, spokesman for the Amish colony, approached him for permission to use the building as a private school for Amish children he said plans are being made to construct a new building for the next term. Crouse rented Mud College for the remainder of the present school term.

Stoltzfus said that his daughter is teaching the children. He reported that 12 families will relocate from Mechanicsville, Md., within the next few weeks.

Crouse said that Stoltzfus assisted upon paying rent for the building and they finally agreed on "a head per month."

Crouse said he put the antique pot-belly stove back in the building. He also said that electricity was installed in the building a number of years ago, but that he also has equipped it with kerosene lamps for the new occupants.

$1,700 Accident In McSherrystown

A 1963 International truck driven by Mrs. Kenneth Grove, 29, Hanover R. 4, was damaged to the extent of $1,700 Tuesday at noon in McSherrystown.

Mrs. Grove was driving west on Main St. when she struck a parked car owned by Earl Baumgardner, 501 Deane Ave. The parked car, a 1958 Oldsmobile, was damaged to the extent of $900.

The accident occurred when a child in the Grove car unlatched the door and Mrs. Grove in an attempt to close it swerved and struck Mr. Baumgardner's car.

ON DEAN'S LIST
Mary Jane Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bowman, Oxford Ave., McSherrystown, a senior at College Misericordia, Dallas, Pa., has been named on the dean's list for the first semester. Miss Bowman is majoring in home economics.

393 Registered As Adams Voters

Three hundred ninety-three persons signed as new voters in the county during the registration period which ended Monday, the county commissioners' office reported today.

On that number 116 registered as Democrats, 264 as Republicans and 13 as nonpartisans. Monday marked the last day on which counties "at home" could register prior to the primary election April 28. Tuesday the clerks in the commissioners' office began opening the "mailed" registrations under the military list — which includes members of the armed forces, and their wives, civil employees of the government working outside the county, religious and welfare group members stationed outside the U. S. and others.

WOULD ELECT MOST SCHOOL BDS. AT LARGE

The prospect that school directors will have to be elected at large instead of by zones in all but the Fairfield unit if the county is divided into six school districts developed at the meeting of the Adams County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations Tuesday evening at Bendersville.

That information was brought to light by Assistant County Superintendent of Schools George B. Inskip in answer to questions from the audience directed to a panel of which Mr. Inskip was a member.

Inskip said interpretations of the school reorganization law received from Harrisburg state that to divide a new school district into zones for the election of the nine-member board each would have, the court must follow established lines of voting districts.

GETTYSBURG TOO
Because proposed dividing lines of all districts except the present Fairfield joint district cross voting precinct lines, all school directors would have to be elected at large in each of the other proposed districts. This would apply to the Gettysburg district because of the pending division of Mt. Joy Twp.

If the county is made into a single district, Inskip did not indicate there would be any bar to zoning for the election of directors.

Other members of the panel were Dr. Vernard F. Group, county PTA Council president; John R. Korver, a former county PSEA president, and Hugh C. McIlhenny, secretary of the County Board of School Directors. Henry F. Semke, legislative chairman for the PTA Council, was panel moderator.

DISCUSS TWO PLANS
The panel discussed advantages of the one-district and six-district county plans, which were identified as the only ones being seriously considered by the county board which must make its decision by late May.

President Group presided at a brief business meeting and announced an executive committee meeting April 1 at the county superintendent's office to plan for the annual dinner meeting and school of instruction for new officers May 7. Joseph Bosak, Bendersville PTA president, gave a report for the absent treasurer.

Henry Cabot Lodge Swamps Goldwater And Rockefeller With 28,071 Write-in Votes

By WALTER R. MEARS
CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — A snowslide of write-in votes in the nation's leadoff presidential primary today gave Republican Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge New Hampshire's mandate to challenge his boss for the White House.

President Johnson's man in Saigon stayed put, said nothing, and still ran ahead of Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller whose names were on the presidential preference ballot.

They challenged him to come home and fight for the presidential nomination.

The Lodge triumph was underscored when all 14 GOP national convention delegates seeking to carry his banner to San Francisco next July 13 sided to apparent victory.

Zeigler Sisters Win New Honors

According to Dean Emil Messinger of West Chester State College, Eileen S. Zeigler, daughter of Robert G. Zeigler, Windbriar Lane, has been cited for "outstanding academic achievement" during the first semester of her sophomore year at the college.

Miss Zeigler is enrolled in the Elementary Education curriculum. A sister, Barbara, was recently selected as one of the five clarinetists from the two Southern District Bands to participate in the All-State High School Band at Philadelphia March 13-15.

The 150-piece band was selected through auditions held at district band festivals throughout the state. The band was formed specially for a concert performance for the Music Educators' National Conference in Philadelphia this weekend.

The band, under the direction of Frank Pierson of Iowa State University, will present its concert in Convention Hall Sunday evening.

RESIGNS AS VICE PRESIDENT OF AUXILIARY

The resignation of the Rev. John Kugle, New Oxford Lutheran pastor who has accepted a new charge outside the county, as vice president of the Adams County Home Auxiliary was accepted at the March meeting of the organization Tuesday afternoon at the county home. It was the first meeting of the year with January and February sessions called off on account of snow.

The nominating committee was asked to propose a successor to the Rev. Mr. Kugle at the April meeting. The president, the Rev. Robert MacAskill, presided at the meeting with 27 present, including a group of women from the Bethlehem Lutheran Church at Bendersville.

It was reported that the position of Mrs. George L. Engelle, who resigned January 1 as crafts director at the home, has not been filled. Applications for the position are being accepted.

Committee reports were presented including that of Mrs. Ira Henderson on activities at the home for the last two months. She specially thanked all who contributed gifts or entertainment to brighten the Christmas holidays for the guests. She said the January Birthday party was conducted by the Rock Top Club of Cash-town and that for February by members of the St. Paul's Lutheran Church of New Chester.

The March party will be given by the Mothers' class of St. James Lutheran Church here.

Mrs. W. E. Jordan reported on the 78 guests now in the home and praised groups for remembering the home at Christmas time. A seminary choir concert directed by Robert Clippingair was specially enjoyed, she said.

The auxiliary voted to go to the Columbia Gas Company office April 14.

SOROPTIMIST HONOR WON BY HOLLY ASQUITH

Miss Holly Asquith, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Dean Asquith, E. York St., Biglerville, and a Senior at Biglerville High School, was announced as the winner of the annual Soroptimist Foundation Award at the monthly dinner held at Peace Light Inn Tuesday evening.

Dr. Elizabeth Gregg, public affairs chairman for the Soroptimists, presented her with a $25 U. S. savings bond and an engraved sterling silver charm bracelet.

Five high school Senior girls competed for the honor. Qualifications included service, dependability, leadership and clear sense of purpose, cooperation, courtesy, consideration for others, truthfulness, loyalty and punctuality, self-control, dignity, responsibility and sincerity in pursuing selected endeavors. Other requirements were good moral character and genuine interest in family, community, national and world affairs. In addition to stating her aims and purposes, the candidate had to write an essay of not more than 250 words on "My Responsibility As A Citizen," and her application required as substantiating evidence three letters written by three adults not related to the candidate.

OTHER NOMINEES
Dr. Gregg and her committee, and Mrs. H. W. Baker, the president, acted as judges. Dr. Gregg said: "We are proud to introduce to the club these five girls who so ably fulfilled the requirements for this contest." The application see (Continued On Page 3)

LIONS CLUB AT CASHTOWN HAS SENIOR GUEST

Joseph Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hoffman, 107 W. Broadway, was honored as "The Student of the Month" by the Cashtown Lions Club at its meeting Tuesday evening in Cashtown Fire Hall.

Lions President Donald Hershey, in presenting Hoffman with a certificate of achievement, reported the Gettysburg High School student is a member of the Hi-Y club, plays violin in the orchestra, is a member of the Dramatics Club, junior varsity track and the prom committee, and is participating in the Operetta "Brigadoon." He is a member of the Adams County Amateur Radio Society, plans to attend college majoring in German, preparatory to becoming a teacher.

President Hershey inducted four new members, bringing the club membership to 51. The new members are Ray Keefe, Gettysburg R. 2; Paul Rebert, Orrtanna R. 1; George Scarpace, Arendtsville, and Paul Cole, Gettysburg R. 6.

REPORTS ON SHOW

Rev. Henry Early, chairman of the talent show to be held April 4 at the Franklin Twp. Elementary School, Cashtown, reported 27 persons have enrolled so far as participants in the program and said there are "many varieties of talent" scheduled to take part. An audition will be held March 20 at 7 p.m. and a rehearsal on March 30 at 7 p.m. Tickets for the show, at 50 cents for children and $1 for adults, are on sale at Hershey's Men's Shop, Baltimore St.; at Carver's Stationery Co.; Robert's TV Sales, in Arendtsville; Bream's Store, Cashtown; Musselman's Greenhouse, Cashtown, or may be obtained from any member of the club.

The club donated $15 to the Black Walnut Boy Scouts and $12.64 to the American Red Cross.

Dr. Jacob Myers, of the faculty of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary, showed slides of scenes in Lebanon and Egypt.

Community Services Council To Elect

The executive committee of the Adams County Council of Community Services met at the Lamp Post Tea Room on Tuesday at 11 a.m. Plans were made for the next regular meeting which will convene on April 23 at 9:30 a.m. at the Tea Room.

A slate of officers will be elected in April. Chairman of the nominating committee is Attorney Oscar F. Spicer. Other members of the committee are Ronald Baltzley, Gerald Hagmayer and the Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser.

Officers are elected for a term of two years. Three members-at-large will be appointed at the same time. The vacancy caused by the removal from the community of the Rev. Harold W. Westover will also be filled. Members-at-large serve for a term of three years. The fiscal year of the council begins September 1.

Revision of the constitution has been discussed at some length by the executive committee and will constitute an important part of the agenda at the April meeting. It is the opinion of the executive committee that revision of the constitution is very necessary to conform with changes that have taken place since the council has been organized, an officer said.

U.S. Apologizes, Protests Shooting Down Of Training Plane Over East Germany

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States combined an apology with a protest in asking the Soviet Union to help speed the return of an American reconnaissance bomber and its three-man crew shot down Tuesday over Communist East Germany.

The crewmen parachuted from the plane after the shooting, the Defense Department said, but their fate was not known here. The plane was described as unarmed and on a training flight.

The Air Force identified the three crewmen as Capt. David I. Holland, 35, the pilot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Holland of Holland, Minn.; Capt. Melvin J. Kessler, 30, instructor navigator, son of Abraham Kessler of Philadelphia; and 1st Lt. Harold W. Welch, 24, navigator, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald W. Welch of Detroit.

Holland's wife lives at Toul-Rosières Air Force Base,

Delaware ROTC Students Here

Gettysburg National Military Park is playing host this week to 370 Reserve Officer Training Corps cadets from the University of Delaware.

This morning the vanguard of 125 cadets, commanded by Maj. Paul T. Dowd, arrived at the Visitor Center where they viewed the orientation program, Cyclorama and exhibits. Around the relief map in the upper lobby of the Visitor Center, the group was briefed on the battle. After lunch the cadets were taken on a three-hour tour of the battlefield, conducted by Park historians.

On Saturday, Park officials are expecting the remaining 245 cadets, traveling in seven buses, to arrive here when the same itinerary will be followed. The ROTC class is here in connection with its course in American military history.

3 FARMERS' GROUPS MEET HERE TUESDAY

Members of three Young Farmer Associations of the county held a joint meeting Tuesday evening in the Gettysburg High School agriculture office.

Edwin Kann of the Adams Electric Cooperative outlined the method of operation of cooperatives and told of the workings of the Adams Electric Cooperative. Kann said cooperatives "are a logical extension of the cooperation we all must have with each other no matter what work we are engaged in." Members' concern for their cooperative "is important," Kann said, "Doing things cooperatively implies that everyone must have a voice in running the cooperative."

He added that "cooperatives serve also to offer competition to private enterprise to keep it on its toes. Cooperatives are attacked but people fail to realize they are attacking themselves when they criticize the cooperatives."

PLAN BALTIMORE TOUR

Gettysburg Young Farmers' President Irvin Conover presided and introduced Elmer H. Schriver, adviser for the Gettysburg unit; Cecil Snyder and John White, advisers for Upper Adams Young Farmers, and Stephen Heyser and Carl Slothour, advisers for the Bermudian Springs Young Farmers.

Lyntale Brandon, chairman of the Farm-City Day, reported to the Gettysburg group that his committee unanimously recommends that plans for Farm-City Day be dropped for this year. No final action was taken on the matter.

President Conover announced that the tour to Baltimore Chevrolet plant and a meat packing plant will be held March 24 with the members leaving from the local high school at 7:30 a.m. The refreshment committee included William Hall, William Eckert, Milton Hoffman, Charles Coffelt, and Charles Dutrow.

INJURED IN FALL

Mrs. Viola D. Weygant, 69, of 157 N. Stratton St., was admitted to the Warner Hospital in the ambulance this morning after a fall in her bedroom in which she struck her back against a chiffonier. X-rays were taken to determine the extent of her injuries.

COUNTY TO HIRE PSYCHIATRIST IN KRESS CASE FOR $800 FEE

The Adams County court Tuesday gave its approval for the expenditure of $800 for employment of a psychiatrist to examine Clarence Henry Kress, Hanover R. 3, and testify in his murder trial in May.

The matter came into court because Kress, a 43-year-old unemployed bartender, father of 12 children and a veteran of four years' Pacific duty during World War II, sought and obtained a court appointed attorney because he was unable to pay for his own counsel.

Attorney Oscar F. Spicer was appointed. Costs involved in the defense will be paid by the county as a result of Kress poverty. Kress is alleged to have murdered a former employer, Charles Henry Hagarman, 61, of 218 North St., McSherrystown, in Hagarman's tavern, the Buzz Inn, in McSherrystown on the night of February 27.

ASK BAIL REDUCTION

Five prisoners, four men and one woman, who have been held as prisoners since February 13 in default of $5,000 bail each, filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus with the court asking that the bail be reduced. The court set Friday at 10 a.m. as the time for the hearing on the petition presented by James R. Perry, Roland St. Pierre, Joseph Santos, Charles J. Overlette and Evelyn Dias, all of Fall River, Mass. The five complained to the court that they were arrested February 13 in Franklin County and have been in the Adams County jail since February 15 awaiting trial on a burglary and larceny charge. They allege that $5,000 bail each is "unreasonable" and ask that it be reduced under the constitutional provision that "excessive bail shall not be required."

The court handed down a divorce decree in the action of Yvonne Annette Settle Harmon, 227 Carlisle St., versus Harvey Clayton Harmon, 412 York St.

HEAR SUPPORT CASES

A number of support hearings were held by the court.

Wayne Grogan, Gardner R. 2, was directed to pay $30 per week for the support of his wife and children, of which $20 will go toward keeping current his regular support order and the extra $10 will be applied to an arrearage in his payments.

Edward M. Dick, Gettysburg R. 3, was directed to pay $25 per week for the support of his wife and three children, pay the costs and enter a $500 bond on his own recognizance.

Leonard M. Stevens, Waynesboro, was directed to pay $25 per week for support of his wife and two children.

Herbert L. Fetter, 125 Hanover St., was ordered to pay $25 per week for the support of his wife and two children, pay the costs and post the usual $500 bond on his own recognizance.

OTHER ORDERS GIVEN
Irvin L. Little, Hanover, R. 3, was directed to pay $8 per week for the support of a child, pay medical bills, pay the costs, and post the usual $500 bond.

BOOST IN TAX LEVY LOOMS

In a three-hour session Tuesday afternoon the county commissioners brought the 1964 budget near its adoption point and expressed the hope that it can be finished by Friday.

Only a few pages remained to be studied before completing the lengthy budget which contains the breakdown for every department under county supervision.

With completion of the budget, will come also the decision on the tax rate for the year. Among questions that must be decided soon by the commissioners is the matter of the $125,000 debt the current board "inherited" when it took office. Whether the tax should be increased to pay off the amount and how quickly it should be paid off will determine the number of mills to be added to the tax.

Also on the schedule Tuesday was a visit from Daniel A. Paddock, county supervisor for the Farmers Home Administration of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, who explained to the commissioners the programs his office offers to counties.

FIREMEN TO MEET

The Gettysburg Fire Department will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the engine house on E. Middle St., President Robert S. Neary has announced.

JUNIORS TAKE MERIT EXAM AT LITTLESTOWN

Paul B. King, supervising principal, Littlestown Joint School System, Tuesday evening told board members that all 11th Grade pupils took the National Merit Scholarship examination Tuesday and that Ninth Grade pupils took the National Educational Development test. He also reported that 29 Senior boys have taken the Air Force test, and that two Seniors and three Juniors have been accepted into membership in the National Honor Society.

ESSAY WINNER

Miss Jackie Elder was the local winner of the American Legion essay contest and will compete with other county winners for the area title.

Elementary pupils are preparing for the annual spring musical which will be presented by Fifth and Sixth Graders in the high school auditorium on April 10.

Arrangements have been made with the Pennsylvania Association for the Blind to test the sight of all preschool children over four years of age and will be administered in conjunction with preschool registration April 27, 28 and 29 in Rolling Acres Elementary School.

ROAD CONDITIONS POOR

A report of the transportation committee emphasized that roads are not in good condition and that authorities have been notified of these conditions. Drivers will hold the second evacuation drill before the end of March, according to an order by the Department of Public Instruction. One bus traveled 331 miles to transport the basketball team during February.

The school nurse's report showed that 134 pupils received first aid during the month, four required treatments at doctor's offices and one was x-rayed at the hospital. One medical application for glasses was approved. The general pupil health is reported as good.

BASKETBALL LETTERS

Nine boys were approved for basketball letters at a recent meeting of the Athletic Council. They are Terry Arbogast and Ed Koozts captains, Steve Baseboar, Terry Morelock, Jim Blocher, Louis Orndorff, Ed Bless service letter, Dave Trump service letter, Ronald Benner, manager.

New officers of the council are L. Robert Snyder, president; Lloyd L. Staveland, treasurer; Donald C. Fesser, secretary. William Mehning and Herbert Yost were introduced as new members to the Athletic Council.

DR. SHIH WILL SPEAK TONIGHT

The speaker for the midweek Lenten service in the Presbyterian Church this evening at 8 p.m. in the fellowship hall will be Dr. Peter Shih, a native of China and an ordained Presbyterian minister.

He was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Hangchow, one of the largest in central China and a faculty member of Nanking Theological Seminary, where he was also editor-in-chief of the monthly "Seminarian Review." During the Japanese occupation of China in the 1930's he was dean and professor of the West China Union Theological Seminary at Chengtu, having migrated west with the student body.

TWO COUPLES TO WED

Marriage licenses have been issued at the courthouse to the following couples: Ronald Leon Shank, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Shank, Hanover R. 5, and Diana Florence Valentine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gayman, Orrtanna R. 1, and to Herbert Lawrence Fenster and Gail Frances Meier, both of Washington, D.C.

board that menus are prepared by the state nutritionist and all meals are balanced to give maximum nutrition and to utilize the government foods provided to the schools. He said, "We cannot change school policy to suit the individual tastes of 1,200 pupils," and cautioned the board against "letting the student population control the administration."

King reported to the board that the cost of repairing the boiler, which exploded, has been recovered from three insurance companies for $150.86 and that an inspection revealed that all boilers are in good condition. He also told the board that a teacher magazine has accepted an article by Charles Robert, English teacher, for publication in the May issue.

CUSTODIAN RESIGNS

The board accepted the resignation of Ralph Unger, custodian, effective April 30, and approved the school calendar of 181 days for the 1964-65 term, when school opens September 8 and closes June 4.

The property and supplies committee recommended the purchase of rubber runners for the aisles in the auditorium and painting certain areas in the Rolling Acres Elementary School; repairing the play area at the Maple Ave. School and refinishing the gymnasium floor in the high school.

At the suggestion of a director, King agreed to have the principal's report mailed to directors in advance of the regular board meeting in an effort to save time at the meetings.

KINDERGARTEN ISSUE

King reported that 200 cards were sent to parents of preschool-age children concerning a need for kindergarten facilities. He said 60 cards had been returned, in which 50 parents desire the school and 10 rejected it.

Three representatives of the Lions Club requested a reduction in rental rate for the high school auditorium from $75 which they have been charged. They said that inasmuch as they cosponsor the athletic banquet with the Rotary Club and make other contributions to the school they feel that some concession could be made in the established rental charge. The request was referred to the property and supply committee for further study and a report at the April meeting.

APPROVE BILLS

Fred Hartlaub presided at the meeting in the absence of President Wilbur Mackley.

The board approved the payment of current bills in the amount of $37,463.49. King reported that the cafeteria served 18,619 student meals during the 16 days of operation in February at a cost of $5,345.97 for food and $1,405.84 for labor and $62.65 in miscellaneous expenses. He said that USDA commodities included 16 cases of corn, 15 cases of pork, five cases of processed cheese, 49 blocks of bulk cheese and 12 cases of lard.

STUDENT FROM BRAZIL SPEAKS

Carlos Alberto Veick, AFS student at Gettysburg High School, was the speaker at the Exchange Club meeting in the Lamp Post Tea Room Tuesday night. Introduced by Miss N. Louise Ramer, AFS chapter president, the young South American student described his country and spoke of the various customs and points of interest in his native country, Brazil.

Brazil has a population of 70,000,000 people and is comprised of 23 states with Brazilia as its capital, he said. Its main language is Portuguese and agriculture is its main industry. Since World War II the mining of iron ore and other industries are assuming great importance. Coffee is its main export. The Bible must be taught in all schools.

"Forty-five per cent of the population cannot read or write, due to government inability to build and maintain schools. The government is now making use of monies from the Alliance of Progress to remedy this condition."

Miss Ramer told the Exchange members that the American Field Service during the present school year has over 2,500 exchange students in the United States. The club president, Robert Ziegler, presided at the meeting and announced a $15 donation to the Adams County Crippled Children's fund.

29 FARMERS ATTEND CLINIC MONDAY NIGHT

Twenty-nine farmers attended the concluding session of the Roadside Marketing Clinic held by the county Agricultural Extension Association Monday night at the Arendtsville bank.

Charles Porter, extension fruit and vegetable marketing specialist, said that he had contacted state officials and was told that farmer-owned roadside markets and packing houses need not conform to Public Law 485 requirements that blue prints of proposed changes and construction be approved before construction may begin.

He spoke on "Displaying the Product, Packaging and Pricing," and also gave details on egg marketing and the perishable agricultural commodities act designed to protect farmers from bad debts on the part of produce buyers. He urged use of color contrast in displays, and portable display tables. He urged farmers to have "lots of ready-to-go packages in different sizes" and recommended that pricing start "somewhere between the wholesale and retail price for the commodity."

OTHER SPEAKERS

Larry Yager, area marketing agent, outlined methods of record keeping.

Jules Bauermann, extension food technologist, discussed rules for apple juice and apple cider production and held best juice comes from a blend of 30 per cent acid, 30 per cent sweet, 30 per cent aromatic and ten per cent astringent varieties of apples.

To obtain a bright amber color he said ascorbic acid, or vitamin C, may be added to the pulp as it comes from the grinder. Refrigeration at 32 to 36 degrees will hold cider in good shape for about two weeks. Freezing is the best method of preservation for top quality and maintenance of flavor.

CONDUCT PANEL

Five county farmers who operate roadside markets were members of a panel, including Martha Boyer Lower, Stuart Lucahaugh, Earl Peters, Emory Rafenberger Jr., and Ralph Sandoe. County Agent Thomas E. Piper was the moderator. The panel members told of the type of trade they seek, their pricing policies, and methods of advertising. They spoke maintenance of mailing lists, use of recipe folders and classified advertisements in the newspapers, as methods of obtaining customers. The meeting concluded with the showing of a movie on "Equipment to Use in the Plastic Mulching of Strawberries."

SCOUT TROOP UNIT ELECTS

Mahlon P. Hartzell Jr. was elected chairman of the Boy Scout Troop 78 committee Tuesday evening at a meeting in St. Francis Xavier School.

Herman Frasch was named cochairman. Other members elected to the committee and their assignments included John Irvin and Ernest Simpson, advancement; Ivan Bollinger and Joseph Steinhour, camping and activities; Fern Ohler and Merle Hankey, records and finance; Guy Kane and Thomas Gibbons, equipment and transportation. Edward Rohanna is institutional representative for the unit; Dr. Joseph H. Riley, committee secretary; Gordon Adair, Scoutmaster; LeRoy Rudisill, John Irvin and Thomas Cole, assistant Scoutmasters.

Plans were made for the committee to meet the second Tuesday of each month. Plans were made for an electric bulb sale to be held Saturday, March 21, from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. with the patrol selling the most bulbs during the house-to-house solicitation winning a weekend of camping.

Plans were made for a troop inspection March 19 and for attendance at a hockey game at Hershey March 18.

Camping plans outlined at the meeting include a practice session for the spring camporee to be held May 2 and 3 at Pardee Field; the district spring camporee May 22, 23 and 24; Catholic Scouts retreat at Camp Conewago, Dicks Dam, June 12, 13, 14; troop camp at Camp Tuckahoe; June 21 to 27 and a troop camp August 16 to 23 at Weishaar's Meadow.

CARROLL CO. BARN BURNS

The barn at the A. W. Feeser Farm No. 15, in Carroll County, four miles south of Littlestown, was destroyed by fire over the noon hour. Littlestown firemen were summoned at 11:30 this morning and Westminster and Pleasant Valley firemen also responded to the alarm.

The 40 by 80 barn at Black's Corner along the "Babylon Rd." from Littlestown to Mayberry, was found by firemen to be beyond saving on their arrival. Two Littlestown pumpers stood by to this afternoon to prevent spread of the blaze while the building burned to the ground.

Littlestown firemen on a truck which returned to the engine house early this afternoon said that the flames did not appear to threaten any other buildings. The farm is owned by the A. W. Feeser Canning Co., Silver Run.

Firemen said that pending the return of the firemen at the scene, only an ensilage cutter and a few bales of hay and straw were known to have been in the barn.

Cause of the blaze was not known.

American And British Embassies Sacked By Rioting Cambodians In Phnom Penh

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Rioting Cambodians sacked the American and British embassies in Phnom Penh today and the U.S. Information Service library.

Several thousand Cambodians rampaged through the buildings during the three hours of disorder.

The flag over the U.S. Embassy was hauled down and burned, and the mob ran up the Cambodian flag.

Several cars belonging to members of the British Embassy were burned, and several American Embassy cars were overturned.

NO YANKS INJURED

The mob shouted such slogans as "U. S. go home," "Down with imperialists and the Free World," and "Perfidious Albion (England)."

In Washington, State Department press officer Martin Cramer said no Americans were reported injured in the riot but several demonstrators were cut by shattered glass from windows stoned by the mob.

Cramer said U. S. charge d'affaires Herbert D. Spivack had protested to the Cambodian government.

The rioters broke through police barriers to sack the U.S. Embassy and the information library. They put a ladder against a wall to bring the American flag down.

SCATTER PAPERS

Embassy papers were scattered through the streets.

Relations between the United States and Cambodia have deteriorated in recent months, and the government of Prince Norodom Sihanouk has moved closer to the Communist camp.

The Cambodian chief of state has recalled his ambassador from Washington and refused to accept further U.S. aid, accusing the United States and supporting Cambodian rebels. Washington has denied this.

CRITICIZE U. S.

Sihanouk criticized the United States Monday night in connection with his proposal that the United States, Thailand and South Viet Nam send representatives here by the end of March to sign an accord recognizing Cambodia's neutrality and territorial integrity.

The 42-year-old prince said the U.S. suggested creating a frontier delimitation committee instead.

"The American counterproposal constitutes an immense duplicity and inadmissible," he said. "The delimitation of the Cambodian frontiers is not to be done over."

Robert F. Kennedy became the party's nominee for vice president.

Its leaders had some last-minute qualms, fearing a Kennedy write-in that topped that for President Johnson would make OKAY SWEEPSTAKE barrage the President. The outcome quieted those fears. The figures read this way:

Johnson 17,558

Kennedy 14,265

New Hampshire voters also approved their state's big gamble: a sweepstakes designed to raise money for education.

The local option vote on the sale of sweepstakes tickets — conducted all over New Hampshire but effective only in the 42 communities with state liquor stores or race tracks, produced a lopsided yes—about 3½ to 1.

Rockefeller scoffed at Lodge as "a favorite son from New England" and Goldwater called him an ineffectual campaigner. "GOOFED"

But the Arizona senator confessed "I must have goofed somewhere" in the New Hampshire campaign.

The New York governor tempered his reaction with compliments to New Hampshire for "the victory of moderation."

"I think the voters of New Hampshire have rejected extremism," the governor said.

He called on would-be candidates to "come on in and take their positions on the issues and join the debate."

Goldwater accused Lodge of "staying out of the country to avoid having to say anything."

Both Rockefeller and Goldwater said they will head for California this week to hunt votes in that state's June 2 primary.

Ridinger Pleads

For Change In Bill

State Representative Harry D. Ridinger this week urged a change in the proposed unemployment compensation bill to permit a continuation of benefits to seasonal workers.

The Labor and Industry Committee of the state Senate decided Monday to delete a section from the bill which originally would have eliminated payments to seasonal workers except during the season in which they are generally employed.

The committee, headed by Sen. D. Elmer Hawbaker, of the Adams-Franklin district, made the change after an appeal from Ridinger, in behalf of the Adams County workers engaged in food processing industry. He told the committee that the original bill would have "virtually eliminated seasonal employees from benefits."

He said that the food processing industry is one of Adams County's largest employers, providing jobs for as many as 2,900 people at the peak of the canning season.

GHS GRADUATE NAMED DEAN AT ITHACA, N. Y.

Robert M. Davies, professor of English at Thiel College, Greenville, Pa., for the last six years, has been appointed dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Ithaca College, Ithaca, N. Y., effective July 1.

The appointment of the 44-year-old Prof. Davies was announced by President Howard Dillingham.

Davies, who received a from the University of Pennsylvania in 1954, will succeed Warren L. Hickman, who resigned last August. Assistant Dean Frank Kolm is serving as acting dean during the present academic year.

FATHER WAS PASTOR HERE

Dr. Davies will head the largest education division at 72-year-old Ithaca College, with an enrollment of 878 in the College of Arts and Sciences among the 1,911 total registration.

The new Ithaca dean is a native of Carmi, Ill., and a graduate of Gettysburg High School.

He is a son of the late Rev. J. M. Davies, a former pastor of the Great Conawago Presbyterian Church at Hunters-town, and Mrs. Davies.

He attended Hampden-Sydney College for three years, and was awarded the degree of Bachelor of Arts, English major at Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., in 1941. He earned a Master of Arts degree at the University of Pennsylvania in 1945.

IS ARTHUR TOO

Dr. Davies has had more than 20 years of college teaching and administrative experience. He was associate professor of English at King's College, New Castle, Del., 1943-50; dean of men at Perkiomen School, Pennsburg, Pa., for a year, and administrative assistant at Valley Forge Junior College, Wayne, Pa., for three years. He served as an instructor in English at New York State University Maritime College for three years, 1955-58.

Dr. Davies is the author of published articles, short stories, and book reviews. He is a member of Alpha Psi Omega, honorary dramatic fraternity, and Phi Delta Epsilon, honorary literary fraternity.

He is married and has three children.

U.S. Apologizes

of this kind in six weeks and the wording of the U.S. protest after the Soviet destruction of a U.S. T39 jet trainer on Jan. 28 was much harsher. All three men in the trainer were killed.

At that time Tyler made no apology and denounced the Soviet Union's shooting down of the T39 as "a callous and inexcusably brutal act of violence against an unarmed aircraft."

There was no explanation here of the much softer wording of Tuesday night's statement. There was some suggestion that U.S. officials were puzzled, if not embarrassed, by the fact that the RB66B with a pilot and two navigators aboard had strayed across the dividing line in Germany and gotten over Communist territory.

NOT EXPLAINED

There was no explanation of how this happened. The previous incident was also unexplained.

The Air Force said the twin jet aircraft was on a routine training mission from Toul-Rosieres, France, and that the crew had been briefed to fly a practice mission over West Germany.

Before takeoff, the Air Force told The Associated Press here, "emergency procedures near the border were reviewed and crews advised that, if there was any disorientation near the border, to immediately take up a westerly heading" away from the Communist area.

ATTACK DRIVE

The RB66B was last spotted near the central Berlin air corridor, one of the lanes reserved for Allied planes flying over Communist territory between Berlin and West Germany, an Air Force announcement said.

A civilian pilot said he saw what looked like an attack dive by a Soviet-made MIG17. He said he saw a flash as if the MIG had fired its rockets. He reported he was not able to see the target.

A State Department official said of the American plane "we are not in any doubt that it was shot down."

ON DEAN'S LIST

Miss Olwyn C. Schwartz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Schwartz, R. 1, is among 96 students named to the dean's list for the first semester at Elizabethtown College, Elizabethtown, Pa., according to Dr. Jacob E. Henshaw, dean Miss Schwartz, a senior majoring in elementary education, graduated from Gettysburg High School in 1960.

Give Exhibition Thursday Evening

The girls' and boys' physical education department of Biglerville High School will present a gymnastics exhibition in the high school gymnasium Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The program will present different facets of physical education such as dancing, exercises to music, the demonstration of gymnastic apparatus and tumbling. The dancing routines will include square dances, soft shoe dancing and an old-time Charleston number.

Exercises to music, such as the record "Chicken Fat," and a lullaby stick rhythm routine to the tune "Syncopated Clock" will also be featured. The apparatus demonstration will include exhibitions on the rings, the balance beam, the trampoline, and the Swedish box. The tumbling exhibition will consist of individual stunts including forward roll, backward roll, headstands, dive rolls, and many other stunts. There will be no admission charge for the program.

FIREMEN ASK EXPLANATION OF FUNDS CUT

Representatives of the McSherrystown Fire Co., at a meeting of the McSherrystown council Monday night, requested an explanation for a cut in appropriations. The sum was cut from $150 to $100 per month.

Councilman Cyril T. Noel explained in part that the larger figure was based on an agreement to help the company with expenses while the building and the Seagrave pumper were being paid, and payments on both are completed. Councilman Donald J. Krepps read a report published by the state showing that McSherrystown appropriated more for the fire company than most other municipalities in Adams County.

The group, composed of Eugene A. Murren, Henry Noel, Bernard C. Brady and Daniel E. Greenholt, stated they would appreciate being advised in the future when changes might be made so their own financial plans could be arranged accordingly. They also asked council to have the secretary write a letter to the company so that all members could understand the reasons for the change.

DRIVE ON DOGS

Council granted permission to the fire company to hold a 75th anniversary celebration in conjunction with the Cumberland Valley Firemen's convention to be held August 17 to 22 in McSherrystown. The annual carnival will be held at the same time.

Andrew B. Gouker, 652 Delone Ave., asked council to investigate a water drainage problem in his area as he and his neighbors were getting water in their cellars. The problem was referred to the borough engineer, William E. Sees Jr.

Council instructed the police department to put on a drive to curb the stray dog problem.

Mayor Edward deCheubell stated he had a complaint from the post office that there are 14 stray dogs in the borough.

SCOUTS AT MEETING

Police Chief Marnard Maser asked council if the adult members of the school patrol were covered by liability insurance. He was informed that they were not, but council took the necessary action to have them covered.

Twenty-four Boy Scouts from Troop 82, Conewago, and Troop 107, McSherrystown, attended the meeting. Charles Heagy, assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 107, explained that the boys were doing this as part of the requirements for a Citizenship and - the - Home merit badge.

Carroll Smith, institutional representative, was with the boys from Troop 82.

Robert F. Snyder, treasurer, reported a balance in the general fund of $282; highway fund, $47, and sewer fund, $3,644.

NURSES GIVE HEALTH DATA

Eight hundred fifty pupils were screened for vision and for height and weight in February and 733 were checked for hearing, according to the monthly report of the school health service submitted to the Gettysburg School Board Monday evening. There were no examinations by the school dentists or physicians during the month.

There were 50 youngsters referred to their physicians because of defective hearing as a result of the screenings.

The nurses' report showed they had 375 pupil contacts during the last month. That figure included 73 youngsters who received first aid and 283 because of illness. Thirty students were sent home because of injuries and six others had to be taken home. Thirteen students were referred to the family doctors because of their illness or injuries and two were sent to

Flood Waters Drive Scores Of Families To Shelters On High Ground; Roads Closed

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Scores of families took shelter in improvised refugee centers today as flood waters churned around their homes, bringing normal activity in some locations to a near standstill.

The water Tuesday spilled over the banks of the Susquehanna River in Central Pennsylvania and the Allegheny and Ohio Rivers in the west.

The Federal-State River Forecasting Service predicted Tuesday night that the Susquehanna River would crest at every measuring point north of Harrisburg by this afternoon.

TOWNS HARD HIT

The Allegheny, which along with the Monongahela, feeds the mighty Ohio, also was reported to be receding. The Ohio was due to crest at Pittsburgh early today at 32 feet, seven feet above flood stage.

Hardest hit communities along the Susquehanna appeared to be Clearfield, Renovo, Lock Haven, Bloomsburg and Milton. Kittanning, Oil City and Pittsburgh

The order on Donald L. Smith, New Oxford, was to pay $7 per week for the support of his wife and two children, and pay the costs and post the usual $500 bond.

TWO CHARGES DISMISSED

Nonsupport cases against Curtis E. Ewing, Scotland, and Guy W. Hess Jr. were continued for six months to terminate at that time unless renewed. Each was directed to pay the costs.

The support case against Wayne A. Trostle was dismissed on payment of costs.

The support case against Charles T. Baker, Spring Grove R. 2, was dismissed on payment of costs.

A number of persons appeared before the court on arrearages and were either given order increasing the amounts they are to pay until the arrearages are caught up or were given to April 14 to pay back payments.

lected by the local club as the winner has been forwarded to the regional committee for competition among the regional clubs with the winner of that contest to compete for the national award to be announced at the biennial convention of the federation in Miami Beach in July.

The other nominees and the schools they represented were: Miss Linda Knipple, Littlestown High School; Miss Candace Sneddon, New Oxford High School; Miss Tem Bulleit, Gettysburg High School, and Miss Darlene Wonders, Bermudian Springs High School. Each of the girls was presented with an engraved sterling silver charm bracelet. Following the presentations, Dr. Gregg called on each girl to tell what she expects to do after graduation from high school.

The public affairs committee in charge of this dinner included Dr. Gregg, Miss Virginia Myers, co-chairman, Miss Anna Weaver, Mrs. Katharine Manning, assisted by Mrs. Samuel Higinbotham, Mrs. Estelle Williams and Mrs. Edith Ditchburn.

GIVE LIFE MEMBERSHIP

Thirty members and seven guests attended the dinner with Dr. Gregg acting as toastmistress. The invocation was given by Mrs. Manning.

The president announced that Mrs. Williams will take reservations for the birthday anniversary dinner to be given by the Carlisle Soroptimist Club on Tuesday, March 17.

Mrs. Baker announced that the first life membership ever given by the Soroptimist Club of Gettysburg had been presented to Mrs. Anna Bierer Tuesday afternoon at her home. Mrs. Bierer is leaving Gettysburg to reside in Washington, D. C. The presentation was made by Mrs. George Eberhart, the first president of the club, and who initiated Mrs. Bierer into the club 25 years ago, and the present president of the club.

The draw prize was donated by Mrs. Harry T. Bream and won by Mrs. Curtis Flohr.

their dentists. Seven of the accident cases required medical attention.

The nurses made five home visits and had four conferences with parents at the school. Gym excuses were issued to 47 youngsters.

The nurses, who praised the teachers for their cooperation in arranging for the pupil screening tests, are Miss Ellen R. Miller, Kathryn Diehl and M. Lucille Brennan.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Start Work On Parish House:
Masons began work Tuesday on the new parish house for Mount Joy Lutheran church being erected by the congregation near the church. The excavation for the foundation was completed last week. The building will measure 66 x 30 feet. The first story is to be constructed of concrete block and the second will be weather-boarded and covered with imitation brick shingles. The completed building is expected to cost about $2,500. The Rev. Paul Beard is the Mount Joy pastor.

New Officers Installed: The March meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club was held in the YWCA Thursday evening with a Lion and Lamp supper at 6 o'clock. Forty-one members and guests attended. Mrs. W. H. Danforth, president of the YW board, installed the new officers. Miss Esther Tipton, vice president, took the place of the retiring president, Miss Elizabeth Woods. Miss Selma Fisel, former treasurer of the club, became vice president, succeeding Mrs. C. F. Daley, who recently resigned. Miss Rosea Armor and Miss Helen Baker, elected by the club at the February meeting, became secretary and treasurer. Serving as pages at the business meeting were Miss Myrie Stauffer and Miss Mildred Moser.

Marriage Revealed: An announcement was made today of the marriage last September of Miss Esther M. Diehl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Diehl, 152 North Stratton St., and Reid C. Fink, son of Mrs. A. C. Fink, York street. The wedding took place at Harrisonburg, Va., on September 10. The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edwin J. Lee, rector of the Catholic church there, in the church rectory. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Diehl, Baltimore St., brother and sister-in-law of the bride. Mrs. Fink is employed as an operator in the local exchange of the United Telephone Company. Mr. Fink is employed by the John C. Lower Co. here.

Parking Meter Proposal Dropped: The campaign to provide parking meters for Gettysburg will be abandoned for the present, Councilman Clyde Berger indicated today. The decision to drop the meter proposition was reached after a majority of the merchants and businessmen of Gettysburg had entered their protests. He said that council did not want to force anything on the borough that is not wanted.

Hotel Owner Expires: Charles Roland Altland, 59, proprietor of the Altland House, Abbotstown, died Tuesday evening from a complication of diseases. He had been in ill health over an extended period and was under the care of a physician. He was a son of Reuben and Amanda (Leib) Altland. Surviving are his wife, who before marriage was Mellie Zinn, and one son, Frederick Altland, at home.

Purchases Grocery: Winton Redding, Gettysburg R.D., has purchased the George Stock grocery at 152 Chambersburg street. He will open the store on Friday. It will be known as Redding's grocery. The new owner formerly was employed at Minter's Store.

Property transfers placed on record at the office of Quintin D. Rebert, register and recorder, include the following:

Today's Talk

LIVING THE DEDICATED LIFE

Nothing spurs one to usefulness more than does the consciousness of responsibility and the personal realization that there is something very important that ought to be done by one, irrespective of anyone else.

In other words, each of us should feel in his heart that he must dedicate his life to an overall of usefulness, using the abilities and talents given to him at birth to their greatest end.

Those who have become the great benefactors to all mankind — discoverers, inventors, scientists, missionaries, teachers, artists, and such — have always been those who in their hearts dedicated themselves to a high purpose. And that has been the incentive that urged them on, gave them personal happiness and satisfaction. To feel that you are dedicated to a great idea, or plan, is to own something that may be intangible, but it's something that places you among the permanent in life.

Those who dedicate themselves to the task of gaining for the world universal freedom, and those who follow these heroes and heroines, dedicating themselves to its preservation, are the ones who inspire all mankind in its trek toward decency, happiness, and a peaceful world — a world without fear, and a warless world. Selfishness is all crowded out when you dedicate yourself to come noble purpose. The desire for such fleeting things as wealth, fame, and social glory, dies, and in their place is gained a spiritual calm that dispels all worry, flooding the mind with hope, and giving zest to every act in life. The way is open for the humblest of us to dedicate his or her life to some useful purpose, or idea. All we have to do is to make decision, and follow it out. There is always something useful that ought to be done. Opportunities wait everywhere, and at all times. Living the dedicated life is to live the triumphant life!

FEAR

The great god Fear grinned back at me:

"I am the foe men never see,
The hurt they never feel," said he.

"I am the wrong they never bear,
The poison they themselves prepare.

"I am the shadow on the stair,
I have no voice and yet I speak;
No strength and yet I blanch the cheek
And leave the strongest mortals weak.

"I am the blackguard man
Heeds most, feeds, cherishes,
And 'gainst all counsel wise defends.

"I fire no gun, I make no cry,
No lodging place in fact have I,
Yet I'm the countless deaths men die.

"Mine is a humor ghastly grim,
The lamp of reason I can dim,
Though I am nothing but a whim.

"I am man's cruellest, bitterest foe,
Yet past his door I could not go,
Had he the wit to tell me: 'No.'"

The Lenten Story

BY WOODY ISHMAEL

BEFORE THE COCK CROWS TWICE

After twice denying that he knew Jesus, Peter was approached in the courtyard by a servant of the high priest. The servant happened to be a relative of the man whose ear Peter cut off with his sword in the Garden of Gethsemani.

"Did I not see thee in the garden with Him?" he asked. Peter began to curse and swear, denying emphatically that he was there or knew Jesus.

"And at that moment, while he was yet speaking, a cock crowed. And the Lord turned and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He said, 'Before a cock crows twice, thou wilt deny me thrice.'"

"And Peter went out and wept bitterly." (Luke XXII: 60-62)

Holy Name Unit Lists Nominees

A slate of officers was presented by the nominating committee, composed of Paul E. Altoft, Stewart N. Long, Robert G. Breighner and Francis Smith, at the March meeting of the Holy Name Society of St. Aloysius Catholic Church on Sunday evening held at the parish hall.

The following were nominated: President, William Groce; vice president, Raymond B. Slagle; secretary, Robert Murren; treasurer, Paul Altoft; marshals, Clyde Rohrbaugh Jr., and Gary Long. Nominations will be open at the next meeting on April 12 and election will follow.

It was announced that the annual banquet of the Conewago Deanery of Holy Name Societies will be held at Conewago on Thursday, April 23. Tickets are available from the officers. The opening and closing prayers were given by the Rev. Dr. John E. Metz, pastor.

FIRST LADY LAUDS WOMEN

HARRISBURG (AP) — "I'm very proud of the women of this country for what they do."

And with that statement Mrs. William W. Scranton, Pennsylvania's First Lady, accepted an armful of petitions demanding that retail milk prices be lowered.

The petitions, bearing some 30,000 signatures, were presented to Mrs. Scranton by Mrs. Martha King, a housewife from Delmont, Westmoreland County.

Mrs. King led a group of Western Pennsylvania women to the capitol in an effort to get the Milk Control Commission to "establish a fair retail price to consumers of milk."

None of the three commissioners was on hand to meet the petitioners. The governor was unable to be present because of appointments.

The presentation gave two lawmakers an opportunity to say they would introduce legislation in the 1965 General Assembly to abolish the commission. The two are Reps. Joseph P. Rigby, R-Allegheny, and Domlnick E. Cioffi, D-Lawrence.

Surprise for the youngsters: Cut up small colored gumdrops (not the licorice-flavored ones) and add to muffin batter along with raisins and nuts, if you like, or use alone.

DR. W. S. HART ADMITTED TO HALL OF FAME

The Gettysburg Symphony Orchestra came in for additional prominence recently when its founder and director, Dr. William Sebastian Hart, was among a group of distinguished alumni admitted into the Baltimore City College Hall of Fame.

The presentations were made by Dr. Julius G. Hubb, head of the school, who is a member of the board of trustees of Gettysburg College as a representative of the Maryland Synod of the Lutheran Church.

Along with Dr. Hart the following were honored:

Eric F. Goldman, special assistant to President Lyndon Johnson; Dr. Lowell Ensor, president of Western Maryland College; Otto K. Schmied, former supervisor of modern languages in the Baltimore public school system; Abraham Kreiger, former president and board chairman of the Gunther Brewing Company, Baltimore, and Henry T. Yost, who retired last August as head of the city college.

The Hall of Fame, conducted annually at Baltimore City College, now has 62 members. Among them are such widely known individuals as Dr. Hugh L. Dryden, chairman of the National Aeronautics Space Administration; Edward Everett Horton, the actor; W. Stuart Symington, United States Senator from Missouri; and Karl Shapiro, the poet.

Dr. Hart was cited for distinguished service in the arts, as a special instructor of music in the city schools and as conductor of the Gettysburg Symphony Orchestra. He was graduated from Baltimore City College in 1936.

SPORTS

New Oxford Takes First Title In A-F League By Dethroning Greencastle

A thrilling second-half surge paced by Jock Sneddon and John Harner broke Greencastle's hold on the Adams-Franklin League as New Oxford won the 1964 championship Tuesday evening on a 69-55 romp over the Blue Devils. A crowd of approximately 750 fans witnessed the contest on the Gettysburg High School Court. It was the first championship for New Oxford in the league.

Greencastle, defending titlist, used some fine shooting and a tough 1-3-1 defense to take an 11-point 37-26 lead into the locker room at halftime. At the same time it was Jake Diviny's Colonials who took the short break to regroup its forces and set the stage for a tremendous comeback. It was almost a complete reversal of play from the first half on the part of both teams.

During the first 20 minutes New Oxford landed but nine of 34 shots. In the second half, the Colonials hit on 15 of 37. Greencastle set a blistering pace, landing 16 of 28 field goals in the first half but was held to five for 31 shots in the last two frames.

COLONIALS ROAR BACK

Ten seconds after the third quarter got underway Bill Dubbs went in for a lay-up and before the smoke cleared Larry Phiel dumped two key shots and Harner tapped a rebound to cut the Blue Devils' margin to 37-34. Following a Greencastle timeout and Al Reed's free throw at 5:35, New Oxford went back to work. At 5:22 Ken Seig hit from the key followed by Sneddon's three points and a lay-up by Harner. At 3:28 Greencastle scored its first goal of the period on Chuck Clever's tapped rebound. This was followed by Jim Wesley's charity toss. Sneddon came back with a free throw while Phiel and Sneddon each connected for a pair of goals. Clever scored on a lay-up for Greencastle at the 14-second mark to end the third quarter.

The Colonials led 50-43 going into the final frame. Rod Shoop landed a pair of free tosses while Harner connected on one for New Oxford. After Vaughn Swope drove up the middle, Dubbs scored two corner jumps for Diviny's squad. Greencastle cut the margin to 55-51 on Terry Baumgardner's corner jump and Gary Seacrest's lay-up. After Ken Hoff scored on a pair of fouls for New Oxford, Harner tallied the last 12 points for the winners. It was midway through the final stanza that Diviny decided to clear his bench. No one seemed to be able to hit and the defense faltered, so the "front line" forces re-entered the battle and remained until the final buzzer.

SNEDDON, HARNER SHINE

Sneddon and Harner pulled the Colonials up by their boot straps in the third frame. Sneddon blocked three perfect Blue Devil shots which might have made a great difference in the outcome. He also hit on four of five goals and pulled down four rebounds. While Harner only scored two buckets, he literally controlled both boards by grabbing off 10 rebounds in eight minutes.

The contest was a slow, dull affair getting started. Greencastle took advantage of seven bad Colonial passes. The Blue Devils managed to pull out to a 15-14 lead at the end of the first quarter. With Wesley, Swope, Clever and Reed pushing the ball through the hoop from all angles, New Oxford could do nothing but watch. Sneddon kept the Colonials in the contest by scoring half of the 12 tallies.

Harner was top man in the ball game with 25 tallies. The 6'2" ball player hit on six of 14 goals, an amazing 13 of 14 free throws for

SONNY LISTON IS ARRESTED; HAD REVOLVER; FILE 4 CHARGES

DENVER (AP) — Former heavyweight boxing champion Sonny Liston was arrested Tuesday night by a traffic officer who said Liston was driving 76 miles an hour in a 30-mile-an-hour zone.

Patrolman James Snider said after stopping Liston's Cadillac he found in a search of Liston that he was carrying a seven shot .22 caliber pistol with six cartridges and an empty shell.

Snider, alone when he stopped Liston's car, said he had to call another patrol car for help in handcuffing Liston "when he became belligerent." He was taken in handcuffs to police headquarters.

FREE ON BOND

Snider said he charged Liston with reckless and careless driving, speeding, carrying a concealed weapon and driving without a valid Colorado operator's license. Liston was booked at the jail but gained his immediate release by posting $300 bond, Snider said.

The officer, 5-foot-10, 165-pounds, said he didn't know who Liston was "until I got down to headquarters and one of the other officers who knew him, said 'Hello Sonny.'"

NEAR HIS HOME

Snider said another person in Liston's car was not taken into custody and drove his car away. Snider said he didn't know his identity.

The arrest took place on East 17th Avenue within a mile of Liston's residence in East Denver.

Snider said Liston offered no resistance getting into his patrol car but on the trip down to the police station "began to argue and that's when I called for another car. I said I had a customer that was beginning to get pretty rough."

With the help of the other officer, Snider said he put handcuffs on Liston and drove to the headquarters with no other difficulties.

FOUR CLINCH AHL PLAYOFFS

CLEVELAND (AP)—Quebec, the Eastern Division leader, and three teams in the Western Division already have clinched positions in the Calder Cup playoffs as the American Hockey League season heads into its final three weeks.

The Western clubs are Pittsburgh, the current lead Cleveland and Rochester. Buffalo, last season's champion, is the only club that has been eliminated from the playoff series.

Center Willie Marshall of the Providence Reds continues to close in on the AHL scoring title. He had 73 points through games of Sunday for a two-point lead over Wayne Hicks of Quebec and Gerry Ehman and Bronco Horvath, both of Rochester.

Pittsburgh's Yves Locas has scored the most goals, 37, and Mike Nykoluk of Hershey assisted on six goals during the past week to boost his league-leading assist total to 59.

Roger Crozier of Pittsburgh strengthened his lead as the league's top goaltender by lowering his goals-against average to 2.36 per game. Lorne Worsley of Quebec and Ed Giacomin of Providence share the shutout lead with four apiece.

PISTONS DUMP CINCINNATI'S TITLE HOPES

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Nobody's as loose as a loser when the string begins to run out on a pennant race. The current National Basketball Association windup is no exception.

The lowly Detroit Pistons, feeling no pain at this stage of their worst NBA season, ambushed Cincinnati 114-103 Tuesday night and wrecked the Royals' Eastern Division title hopes.

The Pistons-turned gremlins thus assured Boston of at least a share of its eighth straight Eastern crown. One more Boston victory or Cincinnati defeat will put the Celtics over the top.

BULLETS LOSE

Two other also-rans, Baltimore and New York, had similar sabotage plans for the Western Division leaders. But San Francisco and St. Louis, running 1-2 and a game apart in the West, refused to follow the script.

The Warriors stepped away from the Bullets 129-111 and the Hawks shrugged off the Knicks 124-105.

Ray Scott and Jackie Moreland shot the Pistons ahead to stay early in the third quarter after Cincinnati's 60 per cent first half gunning gave the Royals a 59-56 intermission spread. Bob Ferry's three-point play finished the Royals after they closed to within four points in the final period.

33 FOR ROBERTSON

Scott had 27 points for Detroit. Cincy's Oscar Robertson sank all seven of his first half shots and wound up with 33.

San Francisco, with Al Attles leading the way, struck for 41 third quarter points and broke up a close game. Baltimore trailed 51-50 when the Warriors exploded. Wilt Chamberlain scored 32 points for San Francisco one more than the Bullets' Walt Bellamy.

Cliff Hagan got 12 of his 34 points as St. Louis ran a 26-6 third quarter streak into a 93-73 bulge that kept New York out of upset range. Ex-Knick Richie Guerin added 23 points for the Hawks. Al Butler topped the Knicks with 18.

JIM BOUTON HOLDING OUT

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Bulldog Jim Bouton is still trying to put the bite on the New York Yankees' treasury.

The 25-year-old pitcher, first major Yankee holdout in a quarter of a century, flew into Miami Tuesday night enroute to the Yankees' spring training camp at nearby Fort Lauderdale after making it clear that he had not agreed to the club's $18,500 contract offer and still considers it unsatisfactory.

But, he added, "I may be forced to sign under the conditions now prevailing." Those conditions are what General Manager Ralph Houk says is the final Yankee offer and a threat by Houk to lower the $18,500 figure $100 a day if Bouton is not in camp by midnight Wednesday.

"Since the deadline is Wednesday night," Bouton said before leaving his Ridgewood, N.J., home, "I want to be down there if I do decide to sign. And if I do, it will only be because of the $100-a-day cut, which I can't afford."

Black Hawks Are Picked For Crown

NEW YORK (AP) — George (Red) Sullivan, whose fifth-place New York Rangers defeated Chicago and Montreal the past week, figures the Black Hawks will go on to win their first regular season championship in the National Hockey League.

"Chicago looked stronger to me," the Rangers' coach said today. "The Hawks are bigger and the long season may be taking its toll of the smaller Montreal players. I thought that Bernie Geoffrion and Jean Beliveau looked a little tired when we played the Canadiens over the weekend."

Chicago, which has finished second four times, currently leads Montreal by two points. However, the Canadiens have six games remaining to play and the Hawks only four. The teams meet for the last time this year in Montreal Saturday night.

TED WILLIAMS TELLS BATTERS HOW TO DO IT

By CHARLES MAHER
Associated Press Sports Writer

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) — The guy with No. 9 on his back, and a few extra pounds up front, reluctantly stopped hitting fungos to the Boston outfield and came over to pose for pictures. Within a minute he was talking about hitting and four or five players were gathered around, as attentive as unpublished poets at the feet of the Bard.

"Now the first rule of hitting," said Ted Williams, "is to get a good pitch to hit. If the pitcher fools you with a ball that's over, you take until he's got two strikes on you."

CURRENT CHAMP LISTENS

"Then you concede that the pitcher is in the driver's seat, and you bring your hands up on that bat."

Among the listeners was Carl Yastrzemski, the American League batting champion. Now you'd figure he needs a lecture on hitting like Frank Howard needs elevator shoes.

But Yastrzemski kept listening. When he was a 2-year-old, the lecturer hit .406. In 1957, the same guy hit .388. Those are the two highest major league batting averages in the last third of a century.

"I'll probably be here a couple of weeks," Williams told a reporter after the picture session. "I'll talk about hitting to anybody who wants to listen."

"Most of the young players like to talk about it because it's the hardest thing to do consistently well in baseball. How often do you hear of an outfielder going into a long fielding slump?"

"Now, to do any good here, I've got to be able to talk to a hitter without giving him the idea I'm trying to change his style. I think once a player has developed a style he's just about got to sink or swim with it."

"But it's possible to be a good hitter with any style, short of standing on your head."

WAS IN S. PACIFIC

Williams, an executive assistant on the Boston staff, joined the club here after a trip to the South Pacific. He was the star in an outdoors promotion sponsored by the New Zealand government tourist bureau.

"First I caught a 600-pound threshing shark," he said. "Then I caught some trout and killed three deer—all in the space of 10½ hours. They had planes to take me from place to place."

CATASAUQUA WITH MILLER PLAYS TONIGHT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Catasauqua, led by All-State Larry Miller, squares off against Steelton-Highspire tonight in first round action of the PIAA Interdistrict Class A basketball playoffs.

The winner will draw a bye in the second round and automatically move into the Eastern regional finals March 18 at Harrisburg.

Catasauqua, repeat winner of the District 11 crown, will be favored, although Steel-High, a darkhorse who took the District 3 title away from Harrisburg Penn., has a height advantage.

OTHERS ON CARD

In other Class A first round games tonight, Nanticoke (Dist. 2) goes against Williamsport (Dist. 4) at Scranton, and Pittsburgh Fifth Avenue (Dist. 8) meets Meadville (Dist. 10) at Westminster College.

Punxsutawney and Slippery Rock will try Kittanning once again to play their District 9 final, the only intradistrict game left. It was scheduled Tuesday night, but flooding along the Allegheny River forced its postponement for a day.

One Class C interdistrict game is on tap tonight. Forbes (Dist. 5) meets Williamsburg (Dist. 6) at Hollidaysburg. The winner will play Coudersport March 16 for the Western title.

BRISTOL WINS

In action Tuesday, Mercer moved into the Western Class B finals by edging Reynolds-Sykesville 46-45. Mercer has won the Western crown the past two years.

Bristol, Montrose, and Northern Cambria advanced in other Class B interdistrict contests. Northwest (Dist. 2) and Coraopolis (Dist. 7) won the last of the Class B interdistrict finals.

Bristol (Dist. 1) had three players scoring in double figures as it downed East Pennsboro (Dist. 3) 65-52.

Montrose (Dist. 12), leading 28-12 at the end of the first quarter, coasted to an easy 83-48 victory over Athens (Dist. 4).

Northern Cambria (Dist. 6) opened up a 37-10 halftime lead over Everett (Dist. 5) and went on to win 75-49.

Northwest won the District 2 Class B title with a narrow 64-63 win over Forest City. Coraopolis was crowned WPIAL (Dist. 7) "B" champ after a 63-47 decision over Trafford.

HEUGA SAYS WE CAN WIN

NEW YORK (AP) — The young man's dark eyes shot sparks of fire and his voice bristled with fighting tones.

"I don't care what people tell us," Jim Heuga of Tahoe City, Calif., said. "We can become the strongest nation in the Winter Olympics and we don't have to change our way of life to do it."

"Mark my words, we'll be whipping them all in a few years."

Heuga, 20-year-old University of Colorado student, won one of Uncle Sam's six medals last month in the Ninth Winter Games at Innsbruck, Austria—a third place bronze in the men's slalom ski race.

He and other members of the U.S. Alpine ski team came to New York Tuesday to look at the films of the big snow and ice carnival.

"Friendly" World Enabled Jerry Wolman To Build Big Fortune In Past 12 Years

(Jerry Wolman, a 37-year-old native of Shenandoah in the Eastern Pennsylvania anthracite area left home less than a dozen years ago, broke and in debt. Today he estimates his fortune at $36 million and recently purchased a $5.5 million hobby, the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League. How did he do it?)

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Broke and in debt less than a dozen years ago, Jerry Wolman and his wife, Anne, packed their meager belongings in the rear of a dilapidated auto and set out for an unknown destination in search of success.

Today, at the age of 37, Wolman has amassed a fortune he estimates at $36 million, and recently purchased a $5.5 million hobby, the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League.

How did he do it? Wolman, a dark, curly haired, boyish looking man, states the secret of such fabulous success so simply it staggers you.

FRIENDLY COOPERATION

"It was a combination of things. Friendly people, friendly mortgage companies, friendly banks, complete loyalty from the people working for me," he says, then adds:

"Certain breaks, hard work and an element of luck."

Wolman, a native of Shenandoah, Pa., in the eastern Pennsylvania anthracite area, feels that faith in people and their faith in him have placed him in a position of wealth and independence.

He harks back to the days in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., when he and his wife were unable to make a go of a little retail grocery store they operated. He decided to leave town and try to start over again elsewhere.

CREDITORS HOPEFUL

"We visited people we owed money and told them what we planned to do," Wolman relates. "We explained that we would send them money as soon as we could. They said they would be willing to wait for their money."

As the Wolmans left Wilkes-Barre, they picked up a hitchhiker who was going to George Washington University in Washington, and thus decided to go to the nation's capital.

"When we got to Washington," Wolman recalls, "we had less than $1 between us. We rented a room for $7.50, or maybe it was $10, a week. The landlady was kind enough to wait for her rent until we got our first week's salary."

PAID DEBT

Wolman says his wife went out and got a job with a life insurance firm for about $60 a week; he took a post as a salesman for $75 in a wallpaper and paint store. They worked three years at these jobs, he says, until everybody in Wilkes-Barre was paid.

"While working for the paint store," Wolman says, "I went out on the road selling paint. I got out to various construction jobs and developed a strong desire to create something."

Motivated by this urge to build, he scraped together $5,000 between an uncle and one of those "friendly" banks, acquired a partner with $5,000 purchased a piece of land for $8,000, obtained mortgage money from "friendly" mortgage firms and built 14 apartments that netted about a $40,000 profit.

NEAR BANKRUPTCY

Wolman was on his way—he thought.

His third project, however, turned into a nightmare. It failed, losing more than $100,000 and forcing near bankruptcy.

"I was advised at the time by my attorney and accountant that the smart thing to do was go bankrupt," Wolman relates. "They almost convinced me they were right."

"But it kept bugging me that here I was a young fellow; if I go bankrupt now I'm finished. I can figure on going back to work and knocking out a living for a salary."

"So I decided against it. I did just what I did in Wilkes-Barre with the grocery store creditors. I went around to the subcontractors and told them 'I can't pay, but I will pay if you stay with me.' There wasn't one who turned me down. Everybody stayed right with me, gave me everything I needed to start another job, which we did."

REPAID CREDITORS

"Within a year's time everybody was paid off. Today, we are using 90 per cent of the same subcontractors. They have made many millions, so have we."

He says that whenever he gets to feeling too successful he remembers the days of the $7.50 room. The Wolmans now reside in a $60,000 ranch-style home in Chevy Chase, Md. He drives a Cadillac with a telephone in it. "I intend," he says, "to bring my construction business to a standstill. I'm not going to let it interfere with the Eagles. Actually, I haven't done any real work since I became involved with the football team."

"I'll cut down to four or five jobs a year, enough to take care of the people who have been loyal to me, keep something going for them."

He plans to move to Philadelphia and spend as much time as president of the Eagles as necessary.

As for the future of the Eagles, Wolman predicts his team will vacate last place in 1964, "win at least eight games," which prompted one wit to comment, he MUST be a great builder.

Battery Of Exams For John Glenn

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Marine Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. began a three to four day battery of examinations, including hearing and equilibrium tests, Monday for treatment of a brain concussion.

Glenn, who suffered the concussion in a bathroom accident Feb. 26 in Columbus, Ohio, was flown to Wilford Hall U.S. Air Force Hospital here Friday.

A hospital spokesman said Glenn continues "to suffer with the dizziness when standing and sitting that has been the primary complaint" since the accident. The fall injured his inner ear equilibrium.

BILK ELDERLY WITH VARIETY OF BAD DRUGS

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)—Investigating senators received testimony Tuesday that one of the more "outrageous attempts to bilk the elderly" involves the promotion of such things as purported potency pills and bust-builders.

Irving Ladimir, spokesman for the National Better Business Bureau, Inc., said the promoters appeal to women with "skin rejuvenators, wrinkle removers, and vitamin preparations."

He said the men "are besieged by potency pills, drugs, various stimulants and devices."

BLACK MAGIC

Chief Postal Inspector Henry B. Montague, an earlier witness, said that his department still occasionally encounters quackery involving electric belts, buzzers "and even black magic potions guaranteed to cure all manner of disease." But, he added, most of today's frauds "are more sophisticated."

"Treatments are offered by mail for every conceivable condition, including cancer, diabetes, prostate trouble, asthma, arthritis, heart disease, and impotency," Montague testified.

Other witnesses testified that "Hucksters of nutritional quackery fleece the elderly of hundreds of millions of dollars annually."

Dr. Frederick J. Stare, chairman of the Harvard School of Public Health's Department of Nutrition, charged that nutritional quackery "has become one of the smoothest and best organized rackets in the country."

He was backed up by Dr. Dena C. Cederquist, chairman of Michigan State University's Department of Foods and Nutrition.

They testified before a Senate subcommittee investigating medical and health quackery affecting the aging.

The subcommittee, headed by Sen. Harrison A. Williams Jr., D-N.J., is study legislation to close some of the loopholes.

The two doctors assailed indignation distributed by authors and publishers of food-fad books and radio and television programs in which actors and others pose as nutrition experts while selling mail-order vitamins, mineral preparations and so-called natural foods.

CRITICS ARGUE GIANT CARRIER IS OUT OF DATE

By TOM OCHILTREE

ABOARD USS ENTERPRISE (AP)—Like some haughty duchess, the gigantic American aircraft carrier Enterprise commands awe but also provokes arguments about her worth.

Her defenders argue that this nuclear-powered, 88,200-ton warship now maneuvering in the Mediterranean with her 101 planes and surface escorts, constitutes the most sophisticated weapons system in the world, with advantages of mobility and a wide spectrum of military responses.

Her critics contend that the Enterprise, for all her newness, is a $500-million white elephant, hopelessly out of date in a missile world in which the Polaris submarine fits neatly.

NAVY LOVES HER

One thing is beyond dispute. The Navy loves the Enterprise.

The 1,123-foot-long ship is the repository for traditions built up in the Pacific naval battles of World War II. The future of the naval aviator revolves around the Big E's successor.

Rear Adm. William I. Martin, commander of the 6th Fleet's Carrier Division 2, employs the Enterprise as his flagship. He was a young flying officer on the old Enterprise, the Big E of wartime fame.

For sentiment's sake, the new Enterprise has only five port-holes in her hull, all taken from the old Enterprise. They grace the cabin of the new giant's skipper, Capt. Frederick H. Michaelis, a native of Kansas City. But tradition does not win wars, the doubters say.

OBSELETE CRAFT

They argue that the Enterprise is really not a modern weapon despite the efficiency of her 5,000-man crew and her eight nuclear reactors that enable her to roam the ocean at high speed without refueling for three years or so.

Employed in a region as restricted as the Mediterranean, the Enterprise would be a sitting duck for rockets. Presumably the Russians keep rockets homed in on her now as she maneuvers with the 6th Fleet.

3 KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

BOSTON (AP) — A freight plane plunging out of a sleet storm crashed in flames on a Boston water front lumber terminal Tuesday, killing its crew of three.

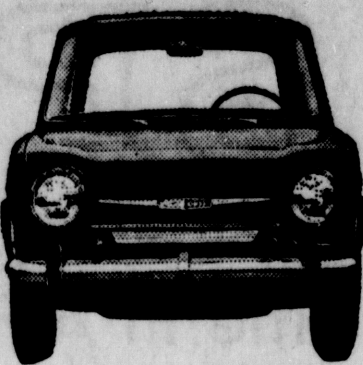

A lumber yard work gang had passed the crash scene just before the impact, giving rise to a report that two yard workers had been killed. However, all yard employees were accounted for later.

Slick airways said the four-engine DC4 was out of New York and Bradley Field, Conn. The plane, attempting an instrument landing, came out of a lowering sky in sleet and a half-gale into the Castle Island Waterfront Terminal across the harbor from Logan International Airport where the craft was to have landed.

Hundreds of sweaters, apparently part of the plane's cargo, were scattered over a wide area as the plane crashed, broke up and burst into flames.

There were nights when Gottfried Piel was sure he should have left his brother in Germany.

When Gottfried Piel decided to buy the tiny Landser Brewery in the section of Brooklyn known as East New York, he asked his brother Michael, who was still living in Germany, to come over and be Brewmaster.

The first year they produced 850 barrels. Michael hardly ever went home. He was fanatical about the beer he was making. He was so wrapped up in what he was doing that he was more than a little hard to get along with. Gottfried was worried.

But Michael knew what he was doing and the word soon spread of the terrific lager beer he was making. Gottfried's friends all told him how smart he was to bring his brother over to be Brewmaster.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

JOSIAH AND VIOLET (FOSTER) SCOTT

The historical and genealogical study of the descendants of Hugh Scott, pioneer settler in what is now Adams County, Pennsylvania, is continued at this time.

5. John (4) Scott, the fourth son and fifth child of Hugh (3) and Janet (Agnew) Scott, was born in what is now Adams County, Pennsylvania, in 1772. About 1796 he married Martha Patterson of Gettysburg. She was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, December 10, 1770, and died August 10, 1834. This branch of the Scott family also emigrated to Washington County—apparently a case of "follow the leader." John (4) and Martha (Patterson) Scott were the parents of six children—one of whom, Hugh (5) Scott, died in infancy.

John (4) Scott died at his home in Washington County on October 17, 1834—a little over two months after the death of his wife. Both are interred, with several of their children, on a family burial plot, located on the Scott farm near Decatur, Pa. If this little graveyard has suffered the fate usually accorded such sites it has long since been desecrated and all trace of it lost.

HAD 11 CHILDREN

6. Elizabeth (4) Scott, the sixth child and second daughter of Hugh (3) and Janet (Ag-

new) Scott, was born in 1768 in what is now Adams County, Pennsylvania, six years before her parents moved on to Washington County. She was married, in 1791, to Colonel Edward Todd and with her husband and young children removed, in 1811, to Steubenville, Ohio. They were the parents of three sons and eight daughters. Two of the sons, George (5) and William (5), died young.

Colonel Edward Todd died in 1843 at Steubenville and was buried there. His wife, Elizabeth (4) Scott Todd survived him by some 12 years—dying in 1855. Insofar as is known she was buried with her husband.

7. Sarah (4) Scott, the third daughter and seventh child of Hugh (3) and Janet (Agnew) Scott, was born in what is now Adams County, Pennsylvania, at her father's farm. Apparently she married against the wishes of her father, that stern old Scotch Presbyterian, for family traditions tell of the "estrangement" between John Jordan (born 1749—died 1826), the husband of Sarah (4) Scott, and her father. As a result of this the Jordans removed to the northern part of Ohio, and practically isolated themselves from other members of the Scott clan.

"WON'T GIVE IN"

Sarah (4) Scott Jordan inherited from her father her Scotch firmness of mind and resentment of what she probably deemed unfairness and injustice in her father's treatment. She was not in the least inclined to "give in" to Hugh (3) Scott and probably went to her grave in that frame of mind. Since her father cherished a like sentiment—the break must have been just about complete.

Sarah (4) Scott and her husband, John Jordan, were the parents of five sons and three daughters—all of whom lived to maturity. The "disobedient daughter" of Hugh (3) Scott died in July 1834—some eight years after the death of her husband.

As was usual in such cases Hugh (3) Scott was determined to have the last word. In his will, which was written in 1814 and probated in 1819—some twelve days after his death, the father of Sarah (4) Scott Jordan had this to say, and his meaning was unmistakable—"considering that her husband (John Jordan) has wronged me so much of my estate, I give an. bequeath to her (Sarah (4) Scott Jordan) the sum of one silver dollar." 8. Margaret (4) Scott, the fourth daughter and eighth child of Hugh (3) and Janet (Agnew) Scott, was born July 8, 1763, and was about ten years of age when she moved to Washington County with her parents. She married James Ramsey about 1781, and in 1805, with a numerous family, they moved to northern Ohio. They were the parents of two sons and eight daughters. James Ramsey died in 1818 and his wife, Margaret (4) Scott Ramsey, died in 1848. The exact place of their burial is not known.

BLACKSMITH BY TRADE

9. Josiah (4) Scott, the fifth son and ninth child of Hugh (3) and Janet (Agnew) Scott, was born at his father's plantation near Millerstown (now Fairfield), this County. He emigrated with his family to Washington County and there married Jane Darragh. They were the parents of two daughters and four sons—all of whom lived to maturity. Josiah (4) Scott died August 16th, 1834, in the 64th year of his age.

Josiah (3) Scott, the son of Abram (2) and brother of Hugh (3) Scott, was born in Chester County, Pa., in 1735. He learned the trade of a blacksmith and, when well established in business, married, about 1760, Violet Foster. He settled at Peach Bottom, Pa., where he was still living in 1763. He removed with his family and his brother, Hugh (3) Scott—his wife, Janet (Agnew), and family, to Washington County about 1774. Josiah (3) Scott died in 1819—in the 84th year of his age.

Josiah (3) and Violet (Foster) Scott were the parents of the following children:—

1. Sarah (4) Scott—died in infancy.

2. Alexander (4) Scott—born December 26, 1763, at Peach Bottom, York County. Went with his family to Washington County when only 10 years of age. Married, November 18, 1790, to Rachel McDowell, the daughter of the Honorable John McDowell. She was born November 17, 1773, and died March 24, 1812. The family moved to Knox County, Ohio, in 1839.

Alexander (4) Scott married for the second time, Esther Craighead, the daughter of Colonel George and Agnes Craighead. She was born March 31, 1766, and died September 7, 1825. The eight children of Alexander (4) Scott were all the issue of his first wife. The husband and father died in Ohio on December 23, 1848—having outlived two wives and the majority of his children.

3. Mary (4) Scott, the second daughter and third child of Josiah (3) and Violet (Foster) Scott, was born in December of 1767 and died November 26, 1844. She married William Cotton, the son of Henry and Mary Cotton.

The notes on the family of Josiah (3) Scott will be continued in this column next week.

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda reported Tuesday that an American ship has arrived in a Soviet Pacific port for the first time in 12 years.

She was the freighter Niagara, which the Soviet Communist party newspaper said docked Monday in Nakhodka, near Vladivostok, with 16,000 tons of wheat.

TUESDAY NIGHT WAS LIKE 1960 ON TELEVISION

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP)—The television networks moved into New Hampshire like an army on practice maneuvers for covering a presidential election.

Tuesday night was just like 1960. The magic computers were back in stage center and so were the boards with the changing vote figures.

Because of the computers, the suspense was over very early in the evening. By 7:30 p.m., EST, the electronic machines had digested early returns and the commentators were talking about the Lodge victory as if all the votes had been counted.

CALLED IN EXPERTS

The early evening special programs on CBS and NBC, therefore, were much more concerned with analysis and speculation than with other aspects of the election.

NBC, with all its top newsmen on the job, used its staff for comment and predictions on the men, issues and coming events.

CBS pulled in some interesting outside experts. Political pollster Louis Harris did a brief analysis on the wa, the vote was chopping into Rockefeller and Goldwater strength. On a second show, he amplified that, to state flatly that the Lodge victory meant a rejection of the two avowed candidates by New Hampshire Republicans.

Meade Alcorn, former GOP national chairman, and Theodore H. White, the other specialist, also spoke of the effect of the Lodge victory on the other candidates and potential candidates, particularly on Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania.

David Brinkley of NBC, explaining the reason for the enormous fuss over the New Hampshire primary, suggested it was partly because it was the first one in the election year and also because "it's a dull season of the year between football and baseball and besides it's fun to see millionaires stomping through the snow being folks."

Peace Corps Hitchhiker Describes Her Seven-Week Vacation Trip To Algiers

By EVELYN VOUGH
Written for The Associated Press

ALGIERS (AP)—The idea of hitchhiking across the Sahara began with a rumor about an old caravan route.

Besides the adventure, the journey would give us a chance to learn about a way of life far different from our own.

I am Evelyn Vough, 24, of Scottsdale, Pa., a member of the U.S. Peace Corps in Liberia.

My companions, also members of the Peace Corps, were: Barbara Prikkel, 22, The Bronx, N.Y.; Barbara Doutrich, 26, Kirkland, Wash.; Barbara Kral, 24, San Lorenzo, Calif., and Geraldine Markos, 23, McKeesport, Pa.

SEVEN-WEEK TRIP

We traveled about 4,000 miles—1,000 of them across the Great Desert—in seven weeks. Each of us spent about $300, mostly for food.

Nothing we have ever done or will do can compare with our adventure, an adventure into understanding of new people and new ways of life and of the very oldest of ideas—an understanding that we truly belong to the great family that is man.

We left Monrovia, Liberia, on Jan. 12 with definite knowledge of a train from Abidjan to Ouagadougou and bits of information gleaned from books, maps and a Lufthansa travel agent. Our goal was North Africa.

IVORY COAST CITY

After a truck ride from the Upper Ivory Coast through a country of exquisitely featured people, we arrived in Abidjan, the capital of the Ivory Coast. There we boarded a third class train for Bouake, about 200 miles north. We visited Peace Corps volunteers a few days, then went by train to Ouagadougou, capital of Upper Volta.

We had the good fortune to meet an English-speaking student who made us feel at home by showing us the town and introducing us to his friends. We spent several days with them, meeting their families and learning the African cha-cha.

MISS NIGHT FERRY

Departure date dawned upon a small Fiat car loaded with five P.C.V.'s (Peace Corps Volunteers) and three Upper Voltans bound for Niamey, capital of Niger. Our Upper Volta friends had offered to drive us there. The sun was hot and the road dusty. At the end of the trip to the Niamey River we found the only ferry already had departed for the night to Niamey on the opposite shore.

We dined by starlight on corned beef and stale bread.

We crossed on the ferry the next morning. The American embassy allowed us to live a few days gratis in the guest apartment.

RODE ON CARGO

A Trans-African bus carried us to Zinder, Niger. There, a French merchant helped us aboard his huge truck, settled us atop the cargo, and instructed his Arab driver to carry us to Agades, in central Niger. At the end of this journey, courtesy of this same gentleman, we found a gift box of food for our desert journey.

In the Agades markets we purchased our black burnoose-type robes, pantalons and turbans and then boarded another truck.

The next four days and three nights were spent on the road—or lack of it. Between Agades and Tamanrasset, Algeria, southernmost town of the Sahara, we had wonderful Arab companions. They were three elderly men, one tiny girl and a most considerate driver.

MOSLEM'S FAST PERIOD

Because it was the time of Ramadan (Moslem fasting period), our companions could eat only after sundown. But they never failed to stop three times a day to permit their strange American passengers to open a few cans of tuna.

Our Algerian friends constantly gave us food, and every evening around the fire, they gave us three tiny glasses of the tastiest tea, poured in the most leisurely and dignified of ceremonies.

After two nights of sleep on the cold Sahara sands, we were glad to find a hotel with warm beds and blankets in the lovely mountain town of Tamanrasset.

ENJOY ALGERIAN MEAL

We had the best of Algerian dinners. It was served by several young boys who invited us to their homes and cooked a six-course meal for us, complete with burning incense.

We left Tamanrasset via truck, which carried us to a small camp in Tihlatine where some French Army engineers live. Here we spent two memorable days. Real friendship grew between us. None there could speak English and our French was limited, but we learned much about their political opinions, their respect for the late President Kennedy and their ideas about the Peace Corps.

REMADE MESS TENT

They made room for us by remaking the mess tent into a tent for five, giving us their cots, their blankets and their food.

We left Tihlatine and the engineers with reluctance and tears, for theirs was the epitome of gentlemanly hospitality.

On to In Salah, where we met the Foreign Legion and spent days discussing our ideas about American politics, current authors, our impressions of the military and preconceptions of the Legionnaire.

The commissioner of In Salah found us a ride aboard a sheep truck to a town beyond El Golea.

Time was growing short, so to speed our arrival in Algiers we changed to three oil tankers which carried us to Ghardaia, where we took a taxi to Algiers. And so we arrived at 3:30 a.m. Feb. 29.

Anthracite Coal Plan Defeated

HARRISBURG (AP) — An amendment to set aside $100,000 for studying ways to use anthracite coal for electric power production was defeated 105-87 in the House Monday.

Rep. Frank P. Crossin, D-Luzerne, sponsored the amendment which would have earmarked the money in a $500,000 appropriation for coal use research.

"I have heard a great deal in the past about moving Pennsylvania forward," Crossin said in a floor speech. "Here we sit with the largest fuel reserve in the nation and we do nothing."

Rep. Blaine Hocker, R-Dauphin, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, told Crossin he had been informed by the Mines Department that the entire $500,000 would be used for culm bank and mine drainage pilot plants.

RELEASE MAN JAILED 5 YEARS

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — Jack Henry Thompson, 25, formerly of Boothwyn, Pa., has been released from federal prison after being told his rights were not properly explained to him when he was sentenced nearly five years ago.

Thompson had received an indeterminate sentence under the Federal Youth Corrections Act in U.S. District Court here May 26, 1958.

Chief Judge Caleb M. Wright told him Monday that his case was handled according to "accepted procedure at the time," but, under later cases, "the court finds it is under a greater

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

a television repairman gets tired of hearing:

"I'm not saying your repair bill is too high, Alvin—just that it is twice what we paid for our set originally."

"Give him a bottle of beer and a sandwich; then maybe he'll be more reasonable."

"What, you here again, Alvin? I think we ought either to adopt you or start charging you rent."

"Give him a tip! Are you crazy? I think we ought to haul him into court and sue him."

SOME DIFFERENCE

"The only difference between duty to protect citizens."

The judge granted an application by Thompson's attorney, Murray M. Schwartz, asking that his conviction on an interstate auto theft charge be set aside on grounds that he was not told when he pleaded guilty that he was waiving his right to grand jury indictment and jury trial.

Schwartz also contended that his offense was not explained in detail and he wasn't told he had the right to counsel assigned by the court.

him and Jesse James is that Jesse never usually held up a man in his own house."

"It's a phone call for you, Alvin. Your wife wants you to stop off at the grocery store on the way home and have your chauffeur run in and get an extra jar of black caviar."

"No, I don't think Alvin learned electrical wiring from a correspondence school. I think he studied it by Braille."

"One thing you have to admit about Alvin. Even if he can't fix the set, he always leaves it with a more interesting tweed pattern on the screen."

OVERTIME DOUGH
"What are you putting all your overtime dough in these days, Alvin—the stock market, or apartment buildings?"

"Are you sure that all it needs is new batteries? After all, it isn't a battery set."

"I hear that Alvin took up television repairing after he flunked out of barber's college."

"Sorry you had to come such a long way through all this snow and rain, Alvin, but I guess we don't need you now. After we phoned you, my wife kicked the television set—and now it's working fine."

Convenient, comfortable electric heat helps to make the Miller home a pleasant and attractive center of family activities.

"We chose ELECTRIC HEAT because of low initial cost and no maintenance"

Mr. and Mrs. George Miller of Hanover report on the advantages of total electric living

Flameless electric heat was an important factor in the design of the Millers' new home. As Mr. Miller says, "We were able to design the layout of the house without any regard to the placement of radiators or piping." Ease of installation is one big advantage of this modern heating method.

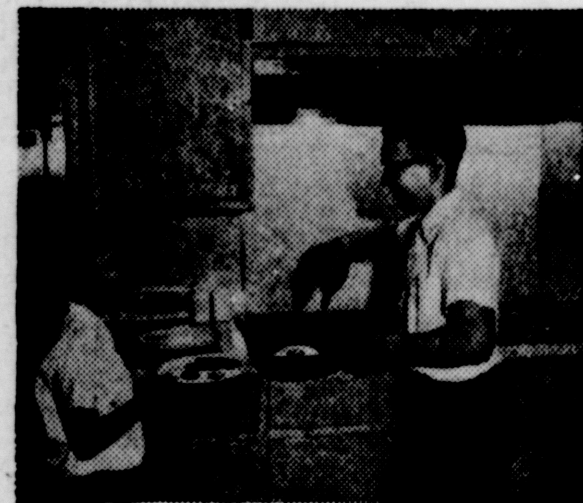

Convenience is another. There's no fuel to order or store—no furnace to clean—no seasonal servicing. And Mrs. Miller is particularly happy with the cleanliness of electric heat. She says she can "spend time cooking or baking instead of dusting or sweeping because there's no dust or dirt with electric heat."

There are now more than 2300 electrically heated homes in this area. The owners are convinced flameless electric heat is ideally suited to their needs. If you are planning to buy, build, remodel or replace your present heating system, you'll find it worthwhile to get full details. See a Reddy Kilowatt Recommended Electric Home Heating Dealer, or call your nearest Metropolitan Edison Company office.

Work-saving electrical appliances play an important part in a busy household. Approved housepower enables the Miller family to take advantage of a wide variety of convenient appliances.

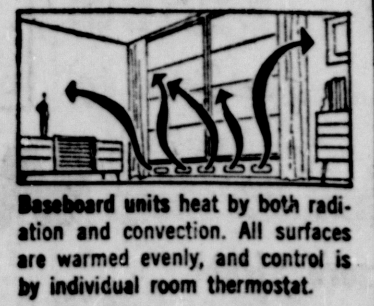

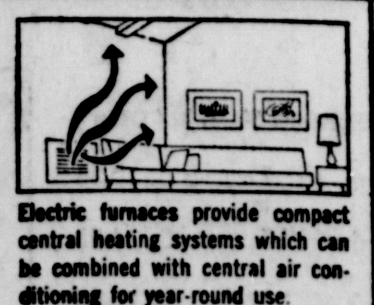

Bill and Tom try their hand at cooking with the safe, dependable flameless electric range. The Millers' attractive kitchen contributes to the pleasure of living in a total electric home.

Two active boys mean plenty of laundry for Mrs. Miller, but modern appliances make washday much easier. An automatic washer and electric clothes dryer are features of this total electric home.

Archbishop Says Charges Against Jews Distorted

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Archbishop John J. Krol, of Philadelphia, in an unprecedented appearance before Jewish leaders, said Tuesday night that a schema on ecumenism rewritten at the second Vatican Council states that the New Testament narrative of the life, suffering and crucifixion of God provides no valid basis and should not be distorted to provide a screen for hatred and anti-Jewish feelings or persecution.

The Roman Catholic prelate, speaking at a meeting sponsored by the Philadelphia chapter of the B'nai B'rith's Antidiscrimination League and the Federation of Jewish Agencies, discussed the chapter on Jewish-Christian relations, whose arguments he termed forceful and compelling.

DENY BRAND

He said the text of the schema as rewritten is not yet available, but the original text stated in effect that "it is false and injurious to brand the Jewish people asicides — slayers of God."

The archbishop said: "In recent years some have distorted the gospel account of the crucifixion, and have used the distorted version as a pretext for persecuting the Jews. The statement should help to eliminate: a future attempt to pervert the gospel narrative from a gospel of love into a gospel of hatred."

The address was the first ever given by the head of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Philadelphia to a meeting sponsored by Jewish organizations.

Party Revolts On Price Fixing

LONDON (AP)—A bill to banish store price-fixing brought the Conservative government its biggest parliamentary revolt Tuesday night since the 1963 Profumo scandal.

Twenty Conservative legislators flouted party discipline and voted for an amendment to water down the bill on its second reading in the House of Commons.

But thanks to a Labor party decision to stay aloof from the fight, the amendment was defeated 287-20.

Kennedy Backers Organize In Wisc.

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—A committee to promote the candidacy of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy for vice president was incorporated in Wisconsin Tuesday.

Papers were filed with the secretary of state by Percy Silver of Milwaukee. Silver, a Milwaukee insurance man, identified himself as chairman and the committee as: "Draft Robert F. Kennedy for Vice President of the United States, Grass Roots, Ground Swell Committee."

Dancers Complain About Pressures

MOSCOW (AP)—Dancers of the Bolshoi Ballet complained Tuesday they are suffering far too many accidents while training and dancing.

They blamed the accidents on the pressure to produce more and better dances. Some dancers are forced to dance while they are ill, the complaint said.

The complaint was signed by some of the top Bolshoi stars and published by the official medical newspaper, Medical Workers.

TALK ABOUT CYPRUS

MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Khrushchev received acting Foreign Minister Andrius Aravos of Cyprus Tuesday and discussed the Cyprus crisis with him.

This was announced by the government news agency Tass, which said the conference took place at Khrushchev's vacation villa on the Black Sea. It was the first public announcement that Khrushchev is vacationing.

REPORT BREAK BETWEEN LBJ AND KENNEDY

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some administration sources sought today to soft-pedal talk of a smoldering political feud between President Johnson and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

One White House official on close terms with both men insisted that relations between Johnson and Kennedy are excellent.

Others, however, insisted there has long been personal friction between the two and that relations were further strained by organized efforts to garner vice presidential votes for Kennedy in Tuesday's New Hampshire primary.

SEEK HARMONY

Although Johnson outpolled Kennedy in New Hampshire, and the attorney general acted last week to discourage efforts in his behalf, the write-in drive for Kennedy certainly was an embarrassment to both men—and helped inspire talk of a party feud.

In view of this, it seemed likely that some concerted effort would be made by the administration to promote Democratic harmony and scoff at reports of a rift.

In fact, the official who characterized Johnson-Kennedy relations as excellent appeared to be speaking for the White House, although he declined to be quoted by name.

JOHNSON COOL

It has often been said that Johnson has been cool to Kennedy for the past three years because Kennedy allegedly opposed selection of the Texan as the 1960 Democratic vice presidential nominee.

One man in a position to know said opinion on the choice of Johnson was sharply divided, but that Robert Kennedy argued for Johnson because of the Southern support he was expected to bring to the ticket headed by John F. Kennedy.

Another insider, while expressing no opinion on this subject, supported the view that there is no warmth in the Johnson-Robert Kennedy relationship. He said the President acted with great reluctance in sending the attorney general on his recent peacemaking mission in Indonesia and Malaysia. He said Johnson apparently did not want to give Kennedy a buildup as a potential running mate.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet news agency Tass sent its subscribers a 450-word report on New Hampshire's "so-called primary elections" Tuesday.

Tass explained the presidential primaries do not settle who will be nominated by "the two principal bourgeois parties" but "give an idea about the influence exerted on the voters by different Democratic and Republican candidates."

REJECT MOVE TO POSTPONE DEM. BANQUET

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Francis R. Smith, Philadelphia Democratic chairman, has rejected a suggestion by Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., that a party fundraising dinner scheduled for April 22 be postponed until after the primary election April 28.

Clark said in a letter to Smith that funds raised at the dinner would be used in the campaign of Justice Michael A. Musmanno of the State Supreme Court, the organization-backed candidate for the U.S. Senate nomination.

Clark is supporting Genevieve Blatt, state secretary of internal affairs, for the Senate nomination. Smith is a Musmanno backer.

"WOULD BE BETTER"
The $25-a-plate dinner is set for Convention Hall here.

"You can readily understand," said Clark, "that many loyal Democrats throughout southeastern Pennsylvania who disagree with your position might feel impelled to refrain from attending."

"In the interest of the success of our party this fall, it would be far better if this dinner was cancelled and held after the primary election when all members of the Democratic party who are presently supporting different candidates would feel free to attend."

BACKS MISS BLATT
In a letter to Clark Monday, Smith replied:

"Justice Musmanno is the endorsed candidate of the Democratic party in Pennsylvania as in prior elections was Joe Clark. The party will give Justice Musmanno the same wholehearted, vigorous support as the endorsed candidate which the Democratic party gave you when you were its officially endorsed candidate."

Meanwhile, Clark campaigned in Philadelphia for Miss Blatt Monday night. Addressing some 200 members of the Northeast Reform Democrats, he said Miss Blatt was "a trained voter" and "better qualified for the job than the man she is running against."

And in another development, Daniel T. Costello, Montgomery County commissioner and former county Democratic chairman, announced his support of Miss Blatt. He said he would actively campaign for her.

PLAN SCHOOL SURVEY

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People says it will announce in April the results of a survey of the state's school districts aimed at determining if there is discrimination in hiring teachers or educating pupils.

Woman Chases Hit-Run Driver Who Killed Two

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "It was up to me — nobody else was going to stop him," Vera Warner, 49-year-old grandmother, said after chasing an accused hit-run driver more than three miles until he was arrested Monday.

Mrs. Warner had watched in horror as a car sped past her and slammed into two elderly sisters helping each other across a street.

"I saw what was going to happen," said Mrs. Warner. "He hit them both and they flew into the air. It made me sick. He kept on going."

The sisters, Nora Eastman and Marie Mindenhall, were killed instantly in the accident at Geary Boulevard and 30th Avenue. The women lived together in a nearby apartment.

The driver accused of hitting them was arrested after a police car crashed into his auto about three miles from the scene. Mrs. Warner was still in pursuit, honking her horn to attract attention.

"I can't remember hitting those two sisters. I started drinking at 10 o'clock," police quoted the driver, Ronald C. Lambert, 32, of San Carlos, Calif. He was booked on suspicion of felony manslaughter, felony hit-run driving, drunken driving and running a red light.

JAMMU, Kashmir (AP) — Two Indians were killed and at least seven others injured in an exchange of fire across the cease-fire line 50 miles west of Jammu town Sunday night, official sources said Monday.

They said Pakistan army units made two raids within five hours of each other at Nava Chak village.

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — The Turkish government has decided to oppose the appointment of Jose Rolz Bennett of Guatemala as the U.N. mediator for Cyprus, a high government source said Monday.

The rejection will be based on the grounds that Bennett, who is Secretary - General U Thant's deputy chief of cabinet, lacks the necessary international standing and experience for the post, the informant said.

RICE UNIV. TO ADMIT NEGROES

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Rice University, one of the nation's last major segregated universities, has been given court authority to admit Negroes and to charge tuition.

A judgment signed Monday by State Dist. Judge William M. Holland gives Rice trustees authority to disregard racial and tuition restrictions set out by the university's founder, William Marsh Rice, in an 1891 indenture.

As to lifting the racial restrictions, Rice President Dr. Kenneth Pitzer said, "We mean just that. Students will be admitted to all areas of college life without regard to color—in the dormitories, the laboratories, and on the athletic field."

Joe H. Reynolds, attorney for two Rice alumni who opposed any change in the university's racial and tuition policies, said he would ask a new trial.

TALKS CONVICT INTO GIVING UP

MUNITH, Mich. (AP) — "I never talked so much in my life," said Marian Poxson, 48-year-old housewife, after she persuaded an escaped convict to surrender.

"I talked to him like he was my son," she said. "He needed help."

Mrs. Poxson, a small, plumpish woman, talked convicted forger Lester B. Dionne, 35, into giving himself up after a hectic frightening period Monday. Police described Mrs. Poxson as a heroine.

A threatened kidnapping, two home break-ins, and a high-speed auto ride with Mrs. Poxson at the wheel praying for police interception figured in the series of events.

A state police alarm was out. Road blocks were up. "An unusual woman," said Gus Harrison, state corrections commissioner, after Mrs. Poxson.

RECORD ROAD BUDGET GIVEN LEGISLATURE

By JACK LYNCH

Associated Press Writer

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton submitted another record road building budget to the legislature Tuesday and predicted that Pennsylvania will complete its federal interstate road system two years ahead of schedule.

Scranton sent the budget and other special fund budgets (fish game, milk control, banking and harness racing) to the legislature with a message, but he did not appear personally.

The budgets do not require legislative action.

COMPLETE BY 1970

In allocating $125 million for construction of interstate roads in the over-all $566.3 million highways budget for 1964-65, Scranton said:

"The interstate construction program is now going so well that it can be predicted that in Pennsylvania, with the full cooperation of local and federal governments, we can now reasonably expect to finish the interstate program by 1970—a full two years before the completion of the national program."

Records of the State Highways Department show that of the 1,375 miles of interstate roads allocated to Pennsylvania, a total of 769 miles are now in service. Another 150 miles are under construction and 107 miles are scheduled for completion this year.

On that basis the state has a little less than 50 per cent of its interstate mileage in service, including 360 miles of the Pennsylvania Turnpike which was completed before the interstate program was initiated.

The federal government will pay 90 per cent of the $125 million figure for interstate roads with the state paying the other 10 per cent.

The total road construction allocation in the new budget will be $285 million, including $152 million in federal funds and $30 million to be financed through bonds of the State Highway and Bridge Authority.

DAR ES SALAAM, Tanganyika (AP) — Self-styled Field Marshal Joh Okello of Zanzibar flew to the island Monday and returned a few hours later with President Abeid Karume.

This seemed to dispose of a report last week by informants in neighboring Kenya that Karume had barred him from returning to Zanzibar.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

IDEAL MAKE-UP. For several seasons the fashion for masky make-up has been on the wane.

For fair skin, choose foundation tinted to the color of peaches-and-cream. The tint for brunet skin is peaches-and-honey. Powder should be a shade or two lighter but in the same family. The keyword to applications is filmy. Better to use two transparent coatings of foundation than one heavy blanket.

If thereafter you still lack glow, try a blusher — a prefoundation rouge or a brush-on applied atop powder. Both are guaranteed to flush up color.

The next step is shadow, the real thing — amber or gray, blended just above the lashes. Mascara? Of course, but applied to simulate nature's best efforts. And that brings us to the lips — let them be smooth, full and realistically colored.

For smoothness, a lipstick should be textured to slip on. A soft intensity should mark its color. If the lips are dry, its formula should contain soothing medicaments, such as oil of cloves, menthol and antiseptic compounds.

Put aside your grooming doubts and worries! Send today for YOUR GROOMING—A TO Z, a booklet that covers every step in achieving smooth looks. It tells how to manicure and pedicure, use deodorants and depilatories, bathe for beauty, tend feet, hands, teeth and eyes, polish skin and hair, care for clothes, apply perfume, overcome personal posers.

To obtain your copy, write Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin.

Continues Talks On Vietnamese War

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara held intensive discussions Tuesday at U.S. military headquarters and the U.S. Embassy on the future of the Vietnamese war.

McNamara canceled another field trip scheduled for today, but sent several aides into the countryside to investigate various aspects of the war against the Communist Viet Cong.

The secretary made three speaking appearances in the Mekong River delta Monday demonstrating U.S. support for the military regime headed by Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh.

In a brief conversation with a newsman, McNamara declined to comment on speculation that the United States is considering carrying the war to Communist North Viet Nam.

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (AP)—State Police said an autopsy would be performed on the body of John C. Marsellus, 65, of St. Thomas, found dead Monday in his wrecked car.

The car had run off Route 30 about four miles west of here and crashed through guard rails. Police said Marsellus may have suffered a heart attack at the wheel.

Emmitsburg

MRS. RALPH LONG HI 7-2231
EMMITSBURG—Mrs. Virginia Green, California, is visiting with Mrs. Marie Rosensteel.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Topper and family have moved from the Boyle Apartments to the property of Charles D. Gillelan, E. Main St.

Mr. and Mrs. William Greco, Myersville, visited with Mr. Greco's parents, Prof. and Mrs. Dominic Greco, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keepers and granddaughter, Cindy Long, and Mrs. James Nickoles and children visited the Cathedral of Mary Our Queen, Baltimore, on Sunday.

The Vigilant Hose Company was called Thursday evening at 7:30 to a field fire on Route 15 South, near Payne's Hill. The Thurmont Fire Company was also called and had the fire under control by the time the Emmitsburg company arrived. On Friday at noon the Vigilant Company responded to an alarm at the Charles Bollinger farm, four miles southeast of town, where a farm building was on fire. Maryland State Police are investigating. While still at the Bollinger property the firemen were called to the Country Side Liquor Store on the Gettysburg Road to an electrical fire.

Woman Plans To Fly Around World

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Joan Merriam plans to leave Thursday for a Friday-the-13th take-off at Oakland, Calif., on a solo airplane flight around the world.

Miss Merriam, 27, a pert, 5-foot-2 blonde, has planned for 16 months to become the first woman to fly around the world.

She'll follow the route taken by the late Amelia Earhart in 1937, when the famed aviatrix and her navigator, Frederick Noonan, vanished in the South Pacific.

Her take-off at Oakland is scheduled for 11 a.m. EST Friday.

Miss Merriam owns the plane she will fly—a twin-engine turboprop-charged Piper Apache, its nose bearing the name "Long Beach Lady."

Girl's Second Eye Is Removed Monday

DURHAM, N.C. (AP)—Vicki Wray talked to a chaplain Tuesday as Duke Hospital personnel continued efforts to soften the blow of an operation which left the 2-year-old blonde totally blind.

Surgeons removed Vicki's right eye last summer when retinal blastoma, a form of cancer, was discovered. The disease forced removal of her left eye Monday.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wray, planned to stay with her until she is released from the hospital. They have eight other children.
